Please be advised that the "Order" of Sept. 19th 2022 concerning Appellate Case No. 2022-000701 is enclosed along with the Mitigation Documentation that was used by Petitioner's then attorney (Breen R. Stevens) to get him (appellant) to plea. This documentation was also presented to appellant's family to aid Mr. Stevens in obtaining a plea agreement from the above named petitioner. The court will notice the bold print used on the numbers presented as the worst case scenario to the appellant in exchange for a guilty plea.

Again, Petitioner humbly and prayerfully moves this Honorable Court for corrective action to be taken in light of the facts and clear injustice.

October 18th 2022

Respectfully Submitted,

Jason H. Peele

ORDER

After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
