Re: Jonathan Kyle Binney v. State
Appellate Case No. 2012-212107

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

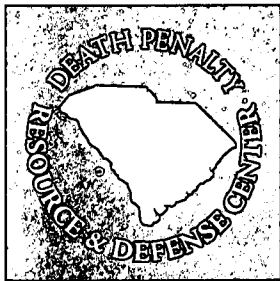

I am writing regarding the above captioned case, which is currently scheduled for argument on December 11, 2014. My co-counsel, John Blume, has been preparing to argue this matter. However, Mr. Blume recently underwent emergency surgery after his retina became detached. He must remain on bed rest for a minimum of ten days from today, and he will be unable to travel in time for this argument. We respectfully request that the argument be rescheduled for the January term. Mr. Blume will be fully recovered and available for any of the argument dates in January. I contacted counsel for the State, William Edgar Salter, III, about this request, and Mr. Salter indicated that he has no objection to our request to move the argument, and he likewise has no conflict with any of the January argument dates.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Emily Paavola
