Dear Chris:

As I advised you earlier this year, I am retiring from the practice of law at the end of this year. In order to withdraw from representation of the Insurance Reserve Fund in the above captioned appeal, I am obligated to give proper written notice to my client. Please accept this email as that notice. I am sure that Andrew will continue to handle this matter in his usual competent manner.

I will send you a copy of my petition for withdrawal when it is filed.

It has been a great pleasure and a privilege to work for the Fund over the many years during which I have practiced. Thank you for allowing me that opportunity.
