STATUS REPORT

I am just now getting ready to leave my office, but I wanted to let the Court know I am sorry for being overly optimistic about finishing the Certiorari Petition in this matter up by November 22, 2022. I am plain and simply still sick. I am getting a little better each day, but I am still dealing with a bad cough, headaches, blurred vision, problems with my balance and terrible side effects from the anti-viral medication I was prescribed; Paxlovid. This is our first Thanksgiving without my Father, so Mom and I are planning a very simply turkey dinner with just the two of us with no out of town guests. I plan to use the long weekend wisely.

Respectfully submitted,

S/ Tara D. Shurling
