IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA
COURT OF APPEALS

APPELLATE CASE NO. 2022-1389

REQUEST EXTENSION OF TIME TO OBTAIN TRANSCRIPT

RECEIVED

Nov 23 2022

TO: CLERK OF COURT, SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS: SC Court of Appeals

Now Comes, Appellate Lois Seaborn, Personal Representative for Nathaniel Colbert, (Deceased) requesting an extension to the deadline for ordering the transcript of the September 19, 2022 hearing.

The Appellate, upon the showing of good cause, request this extension because there have been no other extension requested or given in this appeal. The notice sent by the S.C. Court of Appeals was delayed because of the incomplete mailing address, (1901 Woodruff Rd #123 Greenville, SC 29607). The complete mailing address is 1901 Woodruff Rd. #1234 Greenville, SC 29607. The Appellant humbly and respectfully extends her apologies to the Court for this oversight. In addition, Appellant has been diligently researching for the name of the Court Reporter which was present for the taking of the transcript. At the time of this correspondence, the name and address of the Court Reporter is still unknown by the Appellant. The Appellant has, however, sent an email to the Honorable Judge Verdin, requesting the name and address of the Court Reporter.

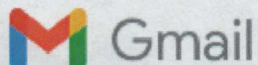

Once the Appellant receives this information, she will immediately request, in writing a copy of the transcript and will forward the same to the S.C. Court of Appeals without delay. Therefore, the Appellate hereby request that this Honorable Court of Appeals grant this motion for an extension of time pursuant to the provisions of Rule 607 SCACR and reconsider the Order of Dismissal in its entirety.
