MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL

TO: KENNETH PINCKNEY, APPELLANT:

Personally comes now Jeffrey S. Weathers, attorney of record for Appellant Kenneth Pinckney, in the above referenced matter and moves the Court for the issuance of an Order relieving him as Counsel in the above referenced matter on the following grounds:

1. Kenneth Pinckney no longer wants to use the services of Jeffrey S. Weathers as his counsel;
2. Jeffrey S. Weathers informed Appellant prior to filing the Notice of Appeal that he did not wish to handle the appeal, that he had not been retained to do so (nor would he accept such a retention), that he had concerns about the merits of the appeal and he would therefore would not handle the appeal.
3. Counsel simply filed the Notice of Appeal so Appellant would not miss his time deadline for such, and it was done with the mutual understanding that Kenneth Pinckney would sign a Consent Order Relieving Counsel or have substitute counsel provide an Order of Substitution of Counsel immediately. Appellant has done neither and has now indicated a desire to be heard on this Motion.
4. Counsel and Kenneth Pinckney have encountered irreconcilable differences stemming from issues, including but not limited to, the course and direction of the litigation and the scope of counsel's representation as it may pertain to collateral matters; Counsel and Kenneth Pinckney have attempted to resolve these issues without success, and it therefore appears their differences are irreconcilable.

Based upon the above, Jeffrey S. Weathers and the Law Office of Jeffrey S.

Weathers, LLC, hereby pray to be relieved as counsel in this matter.

I so Move:
