Re: Case No. 2022-001054 – Charles Bradford Keiffer, Appellant v. Jasper County Delinquent Tax Office and Carolina Heritage, LLC, Respondents

Dear Clerk of the Court of Appeals:

I am the Jasper County Attorney, and counsel of record for Respondent Jasper County Tax Collector ("Respondent Jasper County") in the above referenced. Pursuant to a phone call with your staff this morning, I am sending you this letter with copies to all counsel of record for the purpose of advising that Respondent Jasper County would like to simply join in the filings made this morning of Respondent Carolina Heritage, LLC. Respondent Jasper County has no materials or argument to be added to the Designation of Matters or the Initial Brief of Respondent Carolina Heritage. I would request guidance on whether this letter suffices, and if not, what additional action I might need to undertake to accomplish this, whether that be a formal motion or having Respondent Carolina Heritage make an amended filing including Respondent Jasper County as a signatory.

It is my understanding that time for filing by Respondents of the Initial Brief and Designation will expire on Monday, December 5th, as service by Appellant was made on November 4th. Please advise if any further action is needed by me to avoid being tardy while the request for guidance is being processed.

Thank you and your kind staff for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully,

David L. Tedder

Jasper County Attorney
