Re: Terry Davis v. State of South Carolina

Appellate Case No. 2012-212078

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I'm informing you of the situation, I told my lawyer Robert M. Oudek that I would not have a meaningful Appellate Review. Because of the fabricate evidence introduced during the evidentiary Hearing. Just like I told him my Constitution Right was violated and I will file charge against him if he pursue this Appeal. It will be the same as before. I will be denied Access to the Court. My life come first and I will do what I got to do by any means necessary. To end anybody career. I'm not going to have my Constitution violated again, and I intent to do something about it. I suggest that it be remand back to the lower Court, or Rule 60(B) SCRPC Fraud Upon the Court, be file

Respectfully

Terry Davis, 197349
