

Motion

1 of 3

South Carolina Court of Appeals.

9792

Melissa Fleeewood
Plaintiff

RECEIVED

Date 12/16/22

DEC 16 2022

vs

SC Court of Appeals

Sheldon Jenkins
Defendant

Case # 2021CV401070035

I Melissa Fleeewood at 4100 Highland Park Dr Columbia, SC 29204 ask that the Court Stop the action until my appeal is heard by the higher Court. That Jurisdiction be turned over to family Court. If higher Court can not act ^{act on common law marriage.}

1. Mr Jenkins and I have lived as husband and wife since February 2016. Marriage has occurred prior to the Supreme Court ruling July 24, 2019.
2. Mr Jenkins and I have held each other out in public and before friends and family as husband and wife. Running a business together were we are known as husband and wife.
3. Mr Jenkins and I have carried each other on life insurance policies as beneficiaries (spouse) and also he has carried me as a spouse on auto insurance. (we both have) also (life).

4. I have been named as his children's Step mother by him in DSS case records also in police reports that has acknowledge our union as husband and wife.

5. I carried for his grandmother and he has acknowledge me as his wife to her Physicians prior to her passing when I was a Care giver to her. We have also attended a session of marriage counseling.

6. Mr. Jenkins should pay for my relocation being that he has acknowledge me as his wife prior to the ruling of Supreme Court abolishing Common law marriages July 24, 2019.

The motion is to petition the Court to stop the eviction until appeal is heard and to turn over to family Court if it is out of Jurisdiction to determine the Common law. lease agreements have been provide along with affidavits of individuals that have stated we lived as husband and wife.

7. Mr. Jenkins and I have acquired marital debt that has cause my credit to be damaged and I would like the Courts to help resolve the issue.

A Judgement, Loans for furniture, home security.

M. Fleetwood