Re: Alicia Taylor v. Porter Bankhead
Appellate Case No. 2022-001591

240 Motion to Stay Judgment of Lower Court and Re-Open Appellants' Force Sale Case 2921CP4601165

Appellants reply to Court December 6, 2022, letter on Rule 240 Motion filing requirements. Appellants' appeal of lower court denial of their Reconsideration of Judge Teasa Weaver's refusal to accept Plaintiffs' explanation for the breakdown leading to missed submission imposed in the Case.

Appellants complied fully with Court provisions notifying Respondents of Amended Complaint and Amended Summons. Appellants' submissions to the Court were returned by the Court to the incorrect address on file in latest filings of Appellant Porter Bankhead, which was not forwarded by the USPS to the forwarding address left at USPS by Appellant, and Appellant did not receive these documents from the Court, and, therefore was unaware of the new requirements for reporting in this Case.

In addition, Appellants provided the Court with Proof of Service (USPS Certified Mail, Return Receipts) of delivery to Respondents.

Appellants are asking this Court to direct the lower court to allow processing to continue toward the Forced Sale sought in their Forced Sale Case. Property in the Case was owned by Appellants' parents, Helen and Odell Bankhead, who deeded the property to all nine (9) of their children; six (6) now deceased. The three (3) remaining want to sell the property.

Respectfully,
