

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Theodore Jerry Bolick, Appellant.

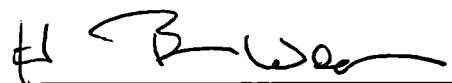

Appellate Case No. 2020-001497

ORDER

The State requests an extension to serve and file the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter and alleges there are extraordinary circumstances justifying this extension. The extension is granted until January 16, 2023. Pursuant to the order of the Supreme Court of South Carolina dated March 18, 2009 (www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2009-03-18-01), any further extension request must show the existence of extraordinary circumstances, state what actions are being taken to insure that no further extension will be required, and be signed by the appropriate attorneys.

The Appellant filed a motion for default judgment based on the State's failure to file its brief. The Appellant's motion is denied.
