Also, in response to your 11/17 letter, I'd called Wed, 11/23, and asked spvr Stormy what my deadline was, and all she said was "timely", and then she hung up (near 5PM). I called then knowing that if it were a 10 day deadline, it would fall on that Thanksgiving weekend, or Monday 11/28. It was then closed 3 days later on 12/1! This is wrong in not giving me a true deadline date.

Also, as I'd mentioned in previous correspondence, my appeal specialist Shelby Spencer had not been getting many of my msgs. I'd only found out 12/9 that she had surgery and was absent for a long period of time, during this time that I needed her expertise and familiarity with my case. This was not me asking her for legal advice, but for Court deadlines and parameters,etc.

Thank you.
