Appellate Case No.: 2012-213600
C/A Case No.: 2010-CP-24-01236
Claim No.: FI 245217
C&L File No.: 1252-293

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On Monday, May 6, 2013, we filed on behalf of Respondents a Motion to Amend our Designation of Matter. Included in the Amended Designation of Matter are five exhibits identified as Defendants' Exhibit Numbers 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. These exhibits are poster-sized enlargements of documents and will not fit in the bound Record on Appeal. We understand Rule 210(f) would normally require you to request those poster-sized exhibits from the trial court. However, if it would be more convenient, Appellant's counsel has agreed to include reduced size (8 ½ x 11) versions of these exhibits in the record rather than requiring the retrieval of the poster-sized exhibits.

Appellant's counsel is in the process of assembling the Record on Appeal, so any guidance you could provide us would be very much appreciated.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,
