Pursuant to the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure, Rule 260 and under the South Carolina Code I timely and respectfully request leave to have my Petition for Certiorari reinstated because while preparing for an Appeal to this Honorable Court, I reviewed all relevant and applicable Appellate Court Rules to understand what is required to request an Appeal and I inadvertently filed the incorrect document and the Honorable Clerk of this Court dismissed the Appeal as it was the incorrect document. When I learned that I an Appeal is an incorrect document, I went back to my notes to find out why I had made such a mistake and I remembered that when I reviewed the Appellate Court Rules and I read over Appellate Court Rule 243, I got the impression that a Certiorari was for a Criminal proceeding, because I simply had never heard of it and the Rule makes a reference to a criminal proceeding. I made a mistake of fact and I have now thouroughly reviewed the Appellate Court Rules. I apologize for any delay that this may have caused and I am now prepared to submit a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, that is in compliance, which I have attached to this motion to obtain your permissioin for reinstatement. I realize that I am not entitled to be before this Honorable Court and that it is only through this Honorable's Court's discretion that a Certiorari can be be reviewed. I respect the court rules and pray for mercy that I be allowed to go forward with this Petition. Attached is a copy of the proof of service on opposing counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
