Re: Appellate Case No. 2017-001673

Greetings: Appeals Clerk of Court,

Within this correspondence please find enclosed a three (3) page copy of the "record on appeal" where it is stated that State's Exhibit #22 (still photo captured from video) is filed within your court records.

Also please find enclosed within this correspondence a copy of a response that I received from Calhoun County Clerk of Court back in September of 2021 and a copy of the "receipt for exhibits" that notified me that there office do not have a State's Exhibit #22 that was filed within the court's records from my trial hearing.

With that much said and proven within the information that I have provided you, can your office please provide me with a copy of State's Exhibit #22 (still photo captured from video) to verify that this exhibit actually exist within the record on appeal and not just simply mention for appearance purposes.

Thank you, in advance for your time and consideration within this matter.

May I please obtain a clock stamp copy of this letter of request back as soon as possible.

Respectfully Submitted

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Enclosed you will find requested copies of exhibits. You have now received all exhibits from your file except of the posters (state's exhibit # 3, 4, 5,6). Due to the color copying it will be additional charges for any future copies. Also included is a copy of the exhibit list. You request state's exhibit #22 but there is not an exhibit #22. I have received your last letter and I am in the process of having a circuit Judge review that matter. I will notify you when I get notice back for this matter.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
