Re: LB PARK, LLC v. San Juan Holdings, Brett Osborne trustee, et al.;
C.A. No.: 2020-CP-46-00549;
Appellate Case No.: 2022-001650.

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I, Ryan Powell, am the pro se Appellant in the above specified appeal case.

Last Friday, December 23, 2022, I filed by email and mail a letter/motion to you requesting an extension of time to file my initial brief, and an extension of the page limit for my brief. At that time I did not know that the Court would be closed for business December 23 - December 27th.

Fearing that my letter/motion for an extension of time may not be heard in time, I worked on finishing my initial brief over the holiday break. So I no longer need an extension of time to file my initial brief. I also did not know on Friday, December 23rd that an extension of the page limit needed to go to the court and not to you. Therefore, I would like to withdraw that letter/motion.

I am requesting that you apply the $50.00 filing fee that I mailed for my withdrawn letter/motion to the motion that I will be filing today to the court for an extension on the page limit for my brief.

I served Respondent by mail with a copy of this letter.

If you have any questions, please give me a call.
Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

/s Ryan Powell
