Petition was due before 12:00: midnight. I did file the document and at 12:15 am, so that it was received before your Honorable and opened and additionally I served all parties via email, so as not to prejudice the rights of the Respondent. I respect the court's time and will have all other pleadings on time.

Additionally, I am requesting leave to file a corrected Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, as the previous petition is in need of correcting and I want to meet the format requirements that are expected in this Honorable Court.

Respectfully submitted,
