SC Court of Appeals

Trustees of the Folly Beach United Methodist Church a/k/a Folly Beach Methodist Church, . . .
..... Respondent.

v.

Betty R. Norman, individually and as Personal Representative of the estate of George A.
Norman, Jr, ..... Appellant.

MOTION EXTENSION TO FILE INITIAL BRIEF

The Appellant hereby requests a thirty-day extension to file her initial brief and designation of contents of record on appeal. This motion is based on the grounds that the parties are close to settlement, which would resolve the issues involved in the above appeal.

In the interim since the last extension, the Appellant has obtained a surveyor's sketch of the area of land to be conveyed to the Appellant by the Respondent which has been provided to the Respondent's counsel, the Appellant has secured the services of Dennis O'Neill, Esquire of the Charleston Bar to complete the final quit claim deed and associated releases, and the parties are poised to execute all documents and pleadings associated with resolution of the matter. Counsel for the Appellant is assured that the matter can be resolved within the next thirty days and respectfully submits that additional time will not be sought from the Court.

Opposing counsel for the Respondent has consented to this extension. The appellant respectfully submits that the interests of judicial economy warrant the grant of an additional thirty days for the Appellant to file her initial brief and designation of contents of the record to be included on appeal.
