Re: State v. Kashif Q. Washington
Appellate Case No. 2013-001294
Lower Court Case Nos. 2013-GS-10-00133, 2012-GS-10-04002, 2012-GS-10-04512, 2012-GS-10-06806 and 2012-GS-10-06812

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Since this appeal does not fall within any of the categories of cases that are to be filed with this Court under Rule 203(d)(1)(A), SCACR, I have enclosed an order transferring the case to the South Carolina Court of Appeals. In the future, I would ask that you please file appeals with the appropriate appellate court as provided by the rule.

Finally, since this appeal is from guilty pleas, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to provide "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal." Failure to make a sufficient showing may result in dismissal of this appeal.¹

This explanation should be served and filed with the Court of Appeals within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure

cc: Office of the Attorney General

¹ In the event you determine that you do not have a good faith explanation to provide, I would recommend that you follow a procedure similar to that provided for in Dennison v. State, 371 S.C. 221, 639 S.E.2d 35 (2006), for the explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR. This will give the petitioner an opportunity to provide a pro se explanation for allowing an appeal from guilty pleas in this matter.
