Re: Sharon Clark v. Habitat 2000, LLC
Appellate Case No.: 2022-001646

Dear Mrs. Spencer:

Subsequent to my January 4, 2023 filing, I received various documents and filings from Mrs. Clark and thus now am in receipt of, what I believe to be, all documents that have been filed. I would still appreciate the Court providing to me all filings to ensure as much.

I maintain my general objection to her filings. Mrs. Clark has filed multiple administrative complaints (which are or have been dismissed), continues to delay this matter, and appears in her filings to be seeking transcripts from matters not even appealed. In total, she appears to be seeking what would be in excess of 10-hours of trial and motion's hearing time. I would request some proof of payment from Mrs. Clark in light of this suspected amount due being potentially $10,000 or more for these records.

Again, however, I would strenuously object to affording her leave to do so for the aforementioned reasons.

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Ipock
