TONJI LAVONNE MEREDITH VS. TAMMY LEE GLENN

THE COURT: All right. I've got down that this is -- involves a matter that was handled by probate court and it's now, I guess, an appeal. Notice of appeal was filed in the circuit court and that we're here on, it looks like, Mr. Smith's motion to dismiss the appeal as being untimely.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, Your Honor. The -- may it please the Court?

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. SMITH: May it please the Court? This appeal was dated and filed in probate court on November 27th, 2020 -- '19. The order that it is being appealed from was filed in probate court September 16th, 2019. And according to 62-1-308, that is an untimely situation and this Court would be without jurisdiction to hear the appeal. And I have a copy of that statute, if the Court wants to see it.

THE COURT: And you're gonna represent the other side, Mr. Brown?

MR. BROWN: Your Honor, I was counsel, obviously, for the probate matter. And I know Ms. Tammy Glenn had filed the response, I would think -- Meredith, I said Ms. Glenn, Ms. Meredith in regards to the filing of Mr. Smith. And I would make myself available for the

1 pertinent issues up until the appeal. That being said,
2 as I understand it, the order came back from the -- the 3 order was filed in regards to November the 7th from the 4 probate court in terms of its final order at that
5 hearing that Mr. Smith and I had before the court.

6 At such time I know there was various mailings
7 that went out, and I think Ms. Meredith would contend
8 that the families would have received their notice
9 around November 23rd.

10 MR. SMITH: Your Honor, I have a copy of the 11 clocked order. It's clocked September 16th, 2019. And 12 the proof of delivery, Your Honor, is dated September
13 24, 2000 - it looks like - '17, unless it's something
14 else. I don't know what that's about.

15 MR. BROWN: And, Your Honor, Ms. Meredith, Tonji
16 Meredith just pointed out to me in regards to the 17 September 24th, based upon, I think, her contention
18 relates to the personal representative being appointed
19 and representing the interest of the estate. She's 20 saying at the outset, throughout the time period up
21 until Mr. Smith and I had a chance to argue the merits
22 of the case, the family was never properly notified from 23 the appointed personal representative of the estate,
24 even including what was filed with the court in terms of 25 proof of delivery in this case. And that would be from

1 September 24th, 2017, until today.

2 THE COURT: Do you have a date of when she got
3 stuff or received the notice? Is there any 4 communications?

5 MR. SMITH: Your Honor, this notice of intent to 6 appeal was sworn to on November 26th, 2019. That's more
7 than two months after the date of the order.

8 MR. BROWN: Your Honor, her contention, along 9 with what would be the corroborating information from 10 the other parties, from the Meredith family, would be
11 that they received their information around November
12 23rd, which during the time period in which she did
13 contact both legal aid in terms of assisting with her
14 application for an appeal, as well as her direct contact
15 with the probate office, that she would have been given
16 ten days opportunity, as well as the interest of her 17 sister and her brother in regards to an intention to the 18 following appeal in this regard. And I think that's 19 what she's saying she's availed herself of since
20 November 23rd, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: So there's no -- so it's not 22 contested that whatever order is being appealed, the 23 order was filed September the 16th?

24 MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: What is contested then is the date

1 that the order was received by the appealing party?

2 MR. SMITH: That's correct.

3 THE COURT: And the appealing party says that
4 they received a copy of the order November the 23rd?

5 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir. And as I understand it,
6 which has been a point of contention throughout, even 7 now to arguing the merits of the case, of the case being 8 decided, Ms. Meredith has a contention against the will,
9 as she stated throughout the validity of the will that 10 was presented for the probating of this court.

11 Subsequent to that, I think she's informed the 12 probate court that there is a will of a later date and 13 time, which I know is not at issue in this particular
14 matter before the Court, but she is in possession of a 15 copy of a will that's of a much later date of the 16 subsequent one which was brought up in the course of her 17 challenging the case from the outset, as well as an 18 appeal, as I understand, based upon the fact that -- and 19 I -- it was her argument, not mine, Your Honor, in 20 regards to what she alleged to be some type of fraud in 21 the execution of the will.

22 Her contention was there was a notary that was 23 involved. We did argue about the aspects of the 24 supplemental will. But that being said, the notary that 25 supposedly attested and signed a notarized will was not

1 a valid notary in any way in South Carolina. The Court
2 later looked at that issue.

3 Ms. Meredith, in between the time period of the 4 court, was providing the ruling. She contacted clearly,
5 the Secretary of State's office. She's contacted the 6 clerk of court's office in Spartanburg, Cherokee.
7 There's also some proper being questioned in her
8 father's estate in Greenville.

9 And from that she says that the person that was 10 said to have been the notary involved in this, was not
11 deemed to be a notary that was valid during this time
12 period. And since that time period, this will that also 13 was being discussed as a part of the merits of the case
14 but hasn't been presented. There had been a filing
15 before the police department of various items being 16 stolen from the home that she occupied that was part of 17 the estate of Mr. Luka Leon Meredith's (phonetic)
18 estate.

19 Since that time period, a copy, and not the 20 original will that she contested was stolen from the 21 residence by whomever. I know she did allege that the 22 parties that brought forth the will to be probated for 23 their behalf, as she stated, this subsequent will had 24 been found. So for that matter she is contending the 25 merits of authentication.

1 THE COURT: Would that not be after acquired
2 evidence that she can present to the probate court?

3 MR. BROWN: In regards to that, yes, I would 4 think so. And that's why I told her I don't think the 5 exact will that she's presenting can be presented
6 towards the Court. But I know that in terms of the 7 issue that was raised, she did raise that as an aspect
8 of it by saying that in presenting information, as well
9 as testimony and evidence, that she had in deed filed a
10 police report during the interim time period of the then 11 presented will to be probated. She did provide 12 testimony during the hearing that involved this order
13 that was handed down.

14 THE COURT: So does any -- so any new information
15 couldn't be presented as a part of this appeal and has 16 to be presented down in probate court because that's the 17 trier of fact down there.

18 MR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Yeah.

20 MR. SMITH: Your Honor?

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 MR. SMITH: She didn't even appeal on that 23 ground. Her appeal is ---

24 THE COURT: That doesn't matter.

25 MR. SMITH: Okay.

1 THE COURT: It's whatever factual information
2 that's getting decided by the probate court, not on 3 appeal by circuit court.

4 All right. So, is it when the clock starts
5 running for appellate purposes, is it when the person
6 receives or ---

7 MR. SMITH: It's when it receives.

8 THE COURT: Pardon?

9 MR. SMITH: The statute says when the person
10 receives it.

11 THE COURT: Well, according to what she's saying,
12 she didn't receive it until November the 23rd.

13 MR. SMITH: I would be interested in seeing what 14 the record says. I was under the impression that the 15 probate court was certifying the record to this court.

16 THE COURT: We don't have any records so far, so
17 this would probably be premature since we don't have a 18 record. We don't have any -- I asked my law clerk. We 19 don't have a return. We don't have anything from 20 probate court yet.

21 MR. SMITH: Okay.

22 THE COURT: So let's just reset this to get that 23 information from the probate court.

24 MR. SMITH: Will the Court request that or do we 25 need to?

1 THE COURT: Y'all have to do it.

2 MR. SMITH: Okay.

3 MR. BROWN: And, Your Honor, I also noticed that
4 I think what Mr. Smith had directly served to Ms.
5 Meredith, there was a request for a guardian. I know
6 that's gonna be, that's gonna be a contention at some 7 point in this case.

8 MR. SMITH: I didn't request a guardian.

9 MS. MEREDITH: Yes, you did.

10 MR. SMITH: No, I didn't.

11 MR. BROWN: Well, I noticed that on what was 12 served to Ms. Meredith was a request for a guardian.
13 Either way, I know that's gonna be a matter that's gonna
14 be brought before the probate court based upon this 15 later will. As the Court is aware, one of the parties
16 getting served would not be -- or alleged to have been 17 served, both for these proceedings and prior 18 proceedings, would not be in a position to even 19 understand the nature. So that would be the twin sister
20 to Ms. Tonji Meredith, who is present here today.

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, this will have to 22 be reset because we don't have any record from probate
23 court as to anything.

24 MR. SMITH: Your Honor, I'm looking at Rule 75 of 25 the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and it says

1 that upon filing of notice of appeal in an action the 2 original record shall be certified by the clerk of the 3 inferior court or administrative agency or tribunal and 4 transmitted within 30 days to the clerk of the court to 5 which the appeal is taken. So I think that is the 6 responsibility, with all due respect, of the probate
7 court to certify that.

8 THE COURT: Somebody's got to tell them.

9 MR. SMITH: Okay.

10 THE COURT: All right. We just don't have 11 anything. Okay.

12 MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. We'll ask for that 13 certification.

14 THE COURT: Yes, sir, if you would. Thank you
15 very much.

16 MR. SMITH: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: And reset this.

Together with the right to erect, construct, reconstruct, maintain, operate, replace and alter thereon one or more lines, either overhead or underground or both, for the transmission or distribution of electric energy, and for communication purposes, consisting of towers, poles, foundations, anchors, and necessary fixtures and wires attached thereto, and all structures and appliances necessary or convenient in connection therewith, as well as the right to install, maintain and use anchors and guy wires on ~~land adjacent to~~ the right-of-way herein granted.

The New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. shall have the right to clear and keep clear all structures, buildings, wells, mobile homes, swimming pools, septic or storage tanks, flammable material/fire hazards, trees, brush, wrecked or disabled vehicles, refuse of any type, as well as such trees ("danger trees") on the Grantor's property beyond the right-of-way which, in the opinion of New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc., are tall enough to fall on an electric or communication line (or any component of same including guy wires) on the right-of-way strip.

The Grantor(s) agrees that New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. may enter the Grantor's lands at any time now or in the future to gain access to the Right-of-Way Strip or to fell and remove danger trees from said Grantor's lands. New Horizon Electric Cooperative's right to enter the Grantor's lands shall be confined to streets, roads and driveways when they exist at the time entry is necessary and when they are adequate for New Horizon Electric Cooperative's purposes; but when they do not exist or are not adequate, such right to enter shall be over the nearest most practicable route or routes.

New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. shall repair damage to the Grantor's lands, to include damage to roads, driveways and fences, caused by New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc.'s exercise of the rights herein granted and shall compensate Grantor(s) for damages to with the exercise of the rights and/or easement herein granted, or any of them, or which may create a hazard.

Grantor(s) reserves all other rights to said Right-of-Way Strip not inconsistent with the rights and easements hereby granted. Such reserved rights shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to, the following: (a) the right to cultivate crops, plants, shrubs and fruit trees that do not grow to a height under the line which would violate minimum clearances required by the national Electrical Safety Code or other lawful regulation then applicable to electric conductors; (b) the right to pave, improve and use the Right-of-Way Strip for temporary automobile parking, provided grantor installs adequate protective barriers for New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc.'s structures; (c) the right to use the Right-of-Way Strip for recreation, provided no structures are erected; (d) the right to retain existing roads, drives, sewer, water and other utility lines on the right-of-Way Strip at their existing locations as of the date of this instrument; (e) the right to construct and maintain new streets, roads, water, sewer and utility lines crossing said Right-of-Way Strip, provided such facilities conform to the following requirements: (i) such facilities cross the Right-of-Way Strip at an angle of not less than 30 degrees; (ii) no portion of such facilities are located within 20 feet of the New Horizon Electric Cooperative's supporting structures; and (iii) such facilities are constructed in strict compliance with all clearance requirements of the National Electric Safety Code or other lawful regulation then applicable to electric conductors; (f) the right to maintain existing fences and the right to build new fences on said Right-of-Way Strip, provided they are located at least 20 feet from New Horizon Electric Cooperative's structures; and (g) the right to excavate, grade and fill, provided such is in accordance with good engineering practice, does not endanger New Horizon Electric Cooperative's structures and their foundations, does not impair New Horizon Electric Cooperative's access, and meets all clearance requirements of the National Electric Safety Code or other lawful regulation then applicable to electric conductors.

The Grantor(s) agrees that all structures and facilities placed on said right-of-way by the New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. shall remain the property of the New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. at its option.

Without additional payment, the New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. shall have the right to reject and abandon this Agreement without entering in on said lands for the purposes of construction.

The New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc. will pay to the Grantor(s) the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($ 1,500) within 30 Days from the date of this Agreement in full payment for the rights granted herein.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, all and singular, the rights, privileges and easements aforesaid unto the said New Horizon Electric Cooperative, Inc., its successors and assigns, forever.

And the Grantor(s) agree(s) to warrant and forever defend the above granted rights against himself or his heirs and against any other person lawfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof. The word "Grantor(s)" shall include Grantors' heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns as the case may be.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Grantor(s) has duly executed this Agreement the 21st day of July, 1999.

INFORMATION

Except as provided in this paragraph, the term "value" means "the consideration paid or to be paid in money or money's worth for the realty." Consideration paid or to be paid in money's worth includes, but is not limited to, other realty, personal property, stocks, bonds, partnership interest and other intangible property, the forgiveness or cancellation of a debt, the assumption of a debt, and the surrendering of any right. The fair market value of the consideration must be used in calculating the consideration paid in money's worth. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value of the realty being transferred in determining fair market value of the consideration. In the case of realty transferred between a corporation, a partnership, or other entity and a stockholder, partner, or owner of the entity, and in the case of realty transferred to a trust or as a distribution to a trust beneficiary, "value" means the realty's fair market value. A deduction from value is allowed for the amount of any lien or encumbrance existing on the land, tenement, or realty before the transfer and remaining on the land, tenement, or realty after the transfer. Taxpayers may elect to use the fair market value for property tax purposes in determining fair market value under the provisions of the law.

Exempted from the fee are deeds:

- (1) transferring realty in which the value of the realty, as defined in Code Section 12-24-30, is equal to or less than one hundred dollars;
- (2) transferring realty to the federal government or to a state, its agencies and departments, and its political subdivisions, including school districts;
- (3) that are otherwise exempted under the laws and Constitution of this State or of the United States;
- (4) transferring realty in which no gain or loss is recognized by reason of Section 1041 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A),
- (5) transferring realty in order to partition realty as long as no consideration is paid for the transfer other than the interests in the realty that are being exchanged in order to partition the realty;
- (6) transferring an individual grave space at a cemetery owned by a cemetery company licensed under Chapter 55 of Title 39;
- (7) that constitute a contract for the sale of timber to be cut;
- (8) transferring realty to a corporation, a partnership, or a trust in order to become, or as, a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than stock in the corporation, interest in the partnership, beneficiary interest in the trust, or the increase in value in such stock or interest held by the grantor. However, the transfer of realty from a corporation, a partnership, or a trust to a stockholder, partner, or trust beneficiary of the entity is subject to the fee even if the realty is transferred to another corporation, a partnership, or trust
- (9) transferring realty from a family partnership to a partner or from a family trust to a beneficiary, provided no consideration is paid for the transfer other than a reduction in the grantee's interest in the partnership or trust. A "family partnership" is a partnership whose partners are all members of the same family. A "family trust" is a trust, in which the beneficiaries are all members of the same family. The beneficiaries of a family trust may also include charitable entities. "Family" means the grantor and grantor's spouse, parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, brothers, children, stepchildren, grandchildren, and the spouses and lineal descendants of any the above. A "charitable entity" means an entity which may receive deductible contributions under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code as defined in Section 12-6-40(A).
- (10) transferring realty in a statutory merger or consolidation from a constituent corporation to the continuing or new corporation;
- (11) transferring realty in a merger or consolidation from a constituent partnership to the continuing or new partnership; and
- (12) that constitute a corrective deed or a quitclaim deed used to confirm title already vested in the grantee, provided that no consideration of any kind is paid or is to be paid under the corrective or quitclaim deed.

* The fee is based on the real property's value. Value means the realty's fair market value. In arm's length real property transactions, this value is the sales price to be paid in money or money's worth (e.g. stocks, personal property, other realty, forgiveness of debt, mortgages assumed or placed on the realty as a result of the transaction). However, a deduction is allowed from this value for the amount of any lien or encumbrance existing on land, tenement, or realty before the transfer and remaining on it after the transfer.
