Re: State v. Jeremiah Martin Gregory
Appellate Case No: 2023-000012

Dear Whom it may Concern:

- The State breached the plea agreement thus warrants invalidation of agreement and new trial. Smith v. State 407 S.C. 270.
- Plea Counsel failure to object and withdraw the plea is ineffective counsel. Smith v. State 407 S.C. 270.
- Defendant was under duress, and Malicious prosecution Due to being held from April 19, 2022 - Dec 2022 without bond, after requesting bond hearing.
SC. Const Art. I § 15 Right to bail.
- Held without Bond and no charges had been presented to grand jury / indicted.
- Defendant has presumption of innocence until convicted for charge.

The above are some reasons I am requesting an appeal. Include but not limited to: ineffective counsel, states breach plea agreement for recommended max sentence, when they agreed to remain silent. Malicious prosecution, duress, violation of SC Constitution Article I § 15. Thank you
Jeremiah Gregory - Jeremiah Gregory
