Re: State v. Rebecca A. Maxwell
Appellate Case No. 2022-000474

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On August 19, 2022, a letter was submitted asking for the above titled appeal to be held in abeyance pending receipt of two missing transcripts that were requested from the court reporter assigned to the case. Although the missing transcripts we ordered were both delivered on December 20, 2022, a question arose as to whether a third missing transcript was needed in order to perfect the appeal. Communications regarding this matter continued until a resolution was reached; and therefore, as of today's date, January 25, 2023, it is settled that all transcripts required for the appeal are in the case file and the abeyance hold can be lifted.

Pending the Court's approval, we have reset our time limits in which to file the initial brief of appellant for thirty days from today, with a new deadline of February 24, 2023.

Sincerely,
