RE: The State, Respondent, V. La'Quandian Jaraffus Bromell, Appellant. Case No. 2022-000509

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I, La'Quandian Jaraffus Bromell, Lower Case No. 2021GS2604475, 2021GS2604476, writing in response to the letter(s) I received on January 18, 2023 from The Court of Appeals involving Appellate Case No. 2022-000509. I was not notified about the miscommunication regarding the appellate courts not receiving a copy of my trial transcript for my direct appeal from counsel. Two requests were made to my counsel requesting for this particular information on June 17, 2022 and August 18, 2022. I was not aware, informed nor notified by my counsel Thurmond Brooker about this matter. I surprisingly on January 18, 2023 received a remittitur that was dated January 10, 2023 and another letter that was stamped "FILED NOVEMBER 07, 2022" both in the mail together, on this particular day. From what I understand my trial counsel Thurmond Brooker did not properly perfect the notice of appeal process because he did not order the trial transcript. In this case Thurmond Brooker abandoned the defendant in such a criminal stage and that the defendant thinks this will be a violation of due process as stated in this court ORDER: "Counsel of the Appellant has failed to order the transcript, as required by Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules."

Sincerely,
s/ La'Quandian J. Bromell
