In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM SOUTH CAROLINA
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW COURT

Deborah Brooks Durden,
S.C Administrative Law Court Judge

Case No. 2202-001433

Wendell D Cooper,

Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Employment of Workforce and School District of Greenville
County,

Respondents.

Motion In Opposition to Respondent's Motion to Dismiss and Motion for Clarification and Extension of Time.

I. Motion to Dismiss

According to Rule 6(e), the Appellant states that the Court denies the Respondent's motion to dismiss the Appellant's appeal for failure to file his Destination of Matter and proper proof of service. In computing the time of the Court's order to correct the above deficiencies, the Court's January 5 letter. Under Rule 6(e), the Appellant has to respond to the Court's letter five days after service by mail.

Consequently, his response to the Court's order was timely. Moreover, the Appellant filed an amended brief on January 16, 2023, including the Destination of Matter and proof of service to all parties involved.

Nevertheless, the Court has yet to respond to the Appellant's motion for an extension time to file his Destination of Matter and seek counsel. Also, the Appellant acting as pro se counsel was waiting on the Court to rule on whether the proof of service was corrected before his initial brief was filed.

Conclusion

Based on the above, the Court should deny the Respondent's Motion to dismiss the Appellant's appeal for failure to file a Destination of Matter and proof of service.
