RE: William E. Danielson v. Tyler Beauregard, Caroline Beauregard, and Born Capital, LLC
Appellate Case Number: 2020-000278
Our File Number: 79.20482

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter dated February 1, 2023, notifying the parties that oral argument has been scheduled for March 7, 2023, at 11:20 am. Please be advised that on January 31, 2023, I also received notification from the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals that oral argument had been scheduled in the case of Shuler v. Orangeburg County Sheriff's Department (Case No. 20-6778) for that same date, March 7, 2023, at 9:30, to be held in-person in Richmond, Virginia.

Obviously, I am faced with a scheduling conflict in that I cannot appear on the morning of March 7, 2023, in both courts in Columbia and Richmond. I have not raised this issue with the Fourth Circuit as yet. I have not had this occur in the past (at least to my recollection), and I am unsure whether the Court of Appeals has a policy of deferring to the Fourth Circuit. Can you provide me with guidance as to how the Court of Appeals wishes for me to proceed with this scheduling issue? I have advised Patrick Flynn, my opposing counsel, of this issue before reaching out to you.

Thank you for your assistance. Please let me know if I may provide any additional information or if I need to file a formal motion for continuance or some other motion.

Sincerely,

LINDEMANN & DAVIS, P.A.

Andrew F. Lindemann
