Re: Debra Riley v. Albemarle Oil Co.
Appellate Case No. 2012-213079

Dear Counsel:

On June 12, 2013, the Court received miscellaneous documents already filed with the Court by the appellant. It is unclear why the documents have been sent, and therefore they are being returned to the appellant.

The Court advises the appellant that her designation of matter has yet to be served and filed as required by Rule 209, of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Within ten (10) days from the date of this letter, the designation of matter is due to be served and filed. Failure to do so will result in the dismissal of this appeal.

The Court received the respondent's motion for extension to serve and file the respondent's initial brief and designation of matter. Upon service of the appellant's designation of matter the Court will act upon the respondent's motion for extension.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
