Re: Stanley Williams v. Alton Williams
Appellate Case No. 2023-000211

Dear Mr. Williams:

The Court has received your motion to stay. Because you are represented by counsel, we are declining to act and returning your filings to you. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").

Very truly yours,
