

MOTION TO REINSTATE.

Vanessa S. Richardson El Appellant

vs.

DITECH FINANCIAL, LLC
Respondent

From the Charleston County Court of Common Pleas.

Case: 2022-000660
Date: February 1st, 2023 ccy

To the Appeals Court of the State of South Carolina:

RECEIVED

FEB 13 2023

SC Court of Appeals

The petitioner, complainant appellant, beneficiary, equitable title holder, grantee, grantor/settlor and real party in interest in this cause, respectfully motion this court to reinstate whereby it was adjudged that my cousin, next friend and consul Bakha Yawuti El whom I granted Durable Power of Attorney to could not file anything in this cause because he is not an Attorney licensed to practice law in the STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, said order defying good reason and good conscience causing a destruction of equitable asset rights.

This decision is based on the erroneous presumption that I the petitioner and my cousin Bakha Yawuti El are U.S. persons residing in a federal district subject to the Emergency War Powers Act of 1933 as enemies, belligerents, and rebels attempting to practice law in the State of South Carolina. In making this decision, the Court manifestly overlooked the fact that the petitioner is legally disabled and that these are trust relations governing this matter as well as the relationship between the petitioner and my cousin/consul Bakha Yawuti El whom I granted beneficial interest to by way of a personal pure equitable by nature private conveyance which makes him a real party in interest as an equitable title holder; and that we are private American nationals privately domiciling within non-military occupied private estates not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, being beneficiaries of treaty trust relations that have never engaged in any hostilities with any Christian nation, our status being affirmed and protected under copyright registration numbers: ©AA77869 ©AA209316 and ©AA222141 service request #'s: 1-11612867887 (MPEA) and 1-10207115576 (MIGO) respectively.

Being that 'generally when there is any conflict or variance between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail', and whereas 'No One Should be Condemned without a Chance to be Heard' is a fundamental maxim of Equity jurisdiction that has always been sacredly observed, I make this motion to reinstate on this particular point of exclusive equity and equitable principles; and that said order be so corrected as to fulfill my intent and purpose to have the matter settled and the wrong of my land and home trust res being inequitably taken remedied; and for general relief to have this court show cause why my rights as a private American national should be commingled in the public with U.S. citizen enemies, belligerents and rebels or so be it resolved the matter should proceed ex parte and sealed. I require Article 3 judges authorized to adjudicate courts of equity under Article 3 Section 2 Clause 1 of the Constitution for the united states of America. The rights in the private being irreparably damaged by public proceedings.
