MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SERVE AND FILE INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER TO BE INCLUDED IN RECORD ON APPEAL

Nicholas SanfilippoAppellant

v.

High Tide Associates Respondents and Estate at Westbury

COMES NOW the Plaintiff and by and through his undersigned Attorney, Gary Coggin requests that the South Carolina Court of Appeals expand the time to file the Plaintiff's Appeal in Case Number 2019-CP-01-00554 to sixty (60) days.

In support of this request, I, as Plaintiff's attorney, states that over the past eleven months, in addition to managing my law practice, I have acted as the sole caretaker for my wife of fifty-six (56) years who, in January 15, 2022, suffered the first of three strokes.

Unfortunately, during the most recent holiday season, Carole suffered two additional strokes that required vascular surgery and lengthy physical rehabilitation.*

Since Carole's return home, it has fallen to me to care for her and closely monitor her condition. As such I can only spend 2/3 hours daily in the office. (Our children live in Chicago and New Jersey and have home and professional responsibilities). *Our son, who is an emergency physician in the Southside of Chicago is convinced that his Mother shows indicators of at least one additional stroke. Upon request, I will provide any medical, surgical and or rehabilitation record requested by this Court.

Request made pursuant to Rules 263(b), 267 and Rule 240 SCARC.

Case on Appeal: NICHOLAS SANFILIPPO v. HIGH TIDE ASSOCIATES and ESTATE AT WESTBURY
Case No.: 2092-CP-01-00554

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

I represent Nicholas Sanfilippo in the above referenced case which is currently beginning the appeals process in the Appellate Court.

Over the past year I have been experiencing family problems and, such, have had to spend increasing amounts of time in my home. Because I do not believe that I will be able spend the time necessary in drafting my initial appeal brief and assembling the record on appeal, I request that this court consider my motion for an extension of time to draft, serve and file an initial brief.

I am available at any time to discuss this matter.

Sincerely,

Gary Coggin
