SC Court of Appeals

February 18, 2023

Thank you for this notice.

Please be advised that I have not received the entire transcript and I was provided with a request for an extension of time by one of the court reporters, due to her pregnancy. I believed the Court was aware of her request for an extension and had granted this request. I did inquire about the transcript again since it was ordered, and I mistakenly did not include the Court and opposing attorney in this chain of correspondence. I am very sorry for this mistake.

I received a reply indicating that the Court reporter had not provided the transcript because she is ill, but I now realize that this was not the court reporter who had requested the formal extension of time from the Court.

I have included the Court and the opposing Counsel in the response I sent to her regarding the delayed transcript. Please find the email correspondence attached.

Please contact me at your convenience if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

Dr. Sybil Dione Rosado, Esq.
