SC Court of Appeals

Dear Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchens Clark

I Am Alma Washington Appellant.

Your honor, I am writing this letter of reconsideration for the oversight of me not filing my Record of Appeal and notice of proof of service, I would never intentionally not file these steps to continue my rights in this case of Palmetto Health and SC Dept of Employment and Workforce saying that I intentionally voluntarily retired from my job of 29 yrs, Your Honor please please reconsider the Order that you sent me on June 10 2013, I ~~was~~ under the impression that when I file my final appeal in March of 2012 and the last one that I did everything the court had ask me to do so truthfully following the rules I am not a attorney, I dont know exactly how to apply certain step to a case, but I'm only dry to get to the truth of my case of a job that I was able to keep for these years because I loved it and was proud to do it by the time they ask me to. I would never deliberately give it up

I would work it now if was ask of me to come back, I have what I did. God knows that I do.
+ Did.

Your Honor I beg the court and you to Reconsider my plead for Reconsideration

I assure you I will never let this happen again, I just want the truth to come out. and the case to continue Thank you for the trust and Reversal of the Decision in the name of Justice and truth
Sincerely
A

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Counsel:

All parties are advised that the originals of all records on appeal and final briefs filed with the appellate courts are scanned. Therefore, in accordance with the May 1, 2008 Amendments to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, DO NOT staple, spiral bind, velobind, or otherwise permanently bind the ORIGINALS of these documents. The original brief(s) and record on appeal should still have front and back covers in compliance with Rule 267(e) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, but should not be bound. You may secure the originals with paper clips, binder clips, rubber bands, by placing them in large envelopes, or by any other similar means that will keep the pages together without binding or hole-punching. All COPIES of the record on appeal and final briefs should be bound as specified in the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

We suggest that large parcels such as copies of final briefs and the Record On Appeal be sent directly to the Court via the street address: 1205 Pendleton Street, Columbia, S.C. 29201. Thank you for your attention to this.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,

CLERK

ORDER

---

Appellant filed a notice of appeal on March 29, 2012, indicating she received the underlying order on March 10, 2012. Additionally, Appellant filed two proofs of service on March 29, 2012, indicating she served the notice of appeal on Respondents on March 29, 2012. Respondents filed a Motion to Dismiss, alleging they were never served the notice of appeal. Appellant filed a return, asserting she timely served the notice of appeal on Respondents. After careful consideration, Respondents' Motion to Dismiss is denied because this court has received two proofs of service indicating both Respondents were timely served.
