Re: Duke Energy Corporation v. South Carolina Department of Revenue,
No. 2012-213180

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

As we discussed, we understand that under Rule 210(b), SCACR, Appellant Duke Energy Corporation will be required to file fifteen copies of the Record on Appeal in the above-referenced matter no later than twenty days following service of the Record on the Respondent South Carolina Department of Revenue.

Due to the sheer size and volume of the Record in this matter, we hereby request permission to reduce the number of required copies from fifteen to seven. We propose filing six bound copies and one unbound copy of the Record, and will provide the ordinary fifteen copies of both the Final Brief and Final Reply Brief of Appellant. Additionally, we will provide an electronic version of the Record for the convenience of both the Court and the Respondent.

Please indicate the Court's willingness to accept this request by responding to this correspondence and copying all parties of record. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Rick Reames III
