Attorneys for the City of Charleston

NOW COMES Appellant, City of Charleston (the “City”), by and through its undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR,¹ and moves for an extension of fifteen (15) days’ additional time to petition for rehearing of this matter, which the Court decided via opinion filed February 1, 2023.

Presently, by order of this Court filed February 17, 2023, the deadline to petition for rehearing is Friday, March 3, 2023. Because of work-related and other time commitments, the Court’s allowance of fifteen (15) days’ additional time for the City to petition for rehearing is requested. It is respectfully submitted that there is good cause for the Court to grant the relief requested herein, as it is, under the circumstances, a reasonable dispensation, timely sought, consistent with the interests of justice, posing no threat of undue prejudice to any other party.

WHEREFORE, it is requested that the Court grant the City an extension of 15 days’ additional time to petition for rehearing. By the undersigned’s calculations, the granting of this relief would make the new deadline to petition for rehearing Monday, March 20, 2023.² ADDITIONALLY, for the same reasons set forth in support of the within request for an extension of time, it is requested that the Court hold the present deadline for the City to petition for rehearing in abeyance until the Court acts on this motion.

¹ In pertinent part, Rule 263(b) provides, “The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof.”

² Calculating the 15-day period (from March 3, 2023) in accordance with Rule 263(a), SCACR, it runs until Monday, March 20, 2023, because the 15th day is Saturday, March 18, 2023.

Respectfully submitted,
