Re: Nicole Qunita Murray v. Linda P. Smith
South Carolina Court of Appeals Case No. 2022-000644

Deputy Clerk Allen:

I represent the Appellant, Nicole Qunita Murray, in the above-referenced matter. By Order dated February 2, 2023, the Court granted Appellant's Motion to Remand for Reconstruction and instructed that such hearings as the Circuit Court Judge deemed appropriate should be scheduled within twenty (20) days of the Order and that I should provide an update to the Clerk of this Court no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the Order.

This letter therefore, updates the Clerk of Court that a hearing to reconstruct the record in this matter has been scheduled and placed on the next available motions calendar in the Charleston County Court of Common Pleas, scheduled for either the final week of March or the first week of April. An email exchange between my office and the Docketing Clerk for the Charleston County Court of Common Pleas, dated February 22, 2023, is attached to this email. Please let me know if I can provide any additional information or documentation. I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jeffrey W. Kuykendall

Angela,

Thank you for your phone call last week. This confirms our conversation from last Thursday, 2/ 16/23, that the Motion to Reconstruct the Record in this magistrate appeal has been placed on the earliest possible motions calendar for the Court of Common Pleas, as provided for by the Court of Appeals in its remand order. Please let me know if this information is in any way incorrect or incomplete and if I can provide any additional information.

I have cc'd the Appellee, who was not formally represented in the original magistrate appeal hearing, and her counsel in the Court of Appeals matter, on this email.

Respectfully,

Jeffrey W. Kuykendall
