Good morning,

Please find attached an amended Notice of Appeal to correct the county name from Sumter County to Marion County. Also, there is a proposed transport order attached that lists Marion County. The Transport Order issued yesterday in this case stated Sumter County, but that will need to be reissued for Marion County.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information from us. We apologize for the initial mistake in the original NOA on the county name.

Thank you and have a great day.

LaDonna
