CERTIFICATE OF COUNSEL

Petitioner certifies that the petition for rehearing was made and finally ruled on by the Court of Appeals on February 27, 2023

QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Did the Court of Appeal err by not reinstating Appeal?

STATEMENT OF CASE

On October 26, 2022 petitioner appealed administrative law judge decision regarding good time credits owed on November 17, 2022 appellate court inform him of deficiencies of proof of service and $250.00 filing fee that needed to be corrected and collected within 10 days subsequently proof of service was corrected and petitioner filed writ of mandamus in regards of filing fee.

On December 13, 2022 appellate court inform him he would not be considered to proceed in forma pauperis and he must pay $250.00 within 15 days or appeal will be dismissed.

On December 24, 2022 petitioner's brother Leonard Lee Lyles mailed $250.00 check to South Carolina Court of Appeals January 9, 2023 appellate court dismissed appeal^{and} on January 19, 2023 petitioner filed a motion to reinstate appeal. on February 27, 2023 rehearing was denied.

ARGUMENT

The appellate court should have reinstated appeal
whereas filing fee was submitted in accordance SCACR
Rule 203(B)(3) within 15 days of December 13, 2022 letter.
