SC Court of Appeals

Memo

To: Members of The South Carolina Court of Appeals

From: Appellant, Carolyn Tolbert Smith

Re: The three abnormal numbers of filings, regarding Appellant's Motion To Return To The Motion

Appellant, C.T. Smith is now speaking with an attorney, hopeful am I that this attorney will represent me. As I have explained in my Motions to Return To The Motion, I told said attorney of the egregious act of Respondents, They dated their Motion to Dismiss^(w) Prejudice my case, Feb. 10, 2023, fourteen days before deadline to respond to said Motion, which Appellant learned about from Ms. Kateland, incoidentally because I, Appellant called Ms. Kateland to 03/14/2023

inquire about any activity in/on my Case, (then) Kateland told me of Respondent's

1.

Motion to Dismiss my appeal with prejudice.

Hence three filings, with no written notice from Respondent and not having any guide as to accusations or any specifics and trying desperately not to have my valid, winnable case dismissed, as ~~I~~ waited for the required, timely Notice from Respondents, I was forced to respond blindly. Four days, before the Feb. 21, 2023 deadline Respondent's Notice arrived, requiring a major rush and costly overnight mailing, to make the Feb 21, 2023 deadline in four days. This egregious, deliberate, desperate move to avoid moving to the appeal level is unforgivable. The attorney advising me, feels that knowledge of this information might have Respondents start
