I'm resending as I did not get a confirmation on the first fax which I had to do from a computer. One $1,500. receipt among other receipts and thousands paid to Lir who refused to give me a statement of my account, lost our conversations, and documents which were never more than fb messages I sent him. His phone calls amounted to nothing more than intimidation..nothing to share the truth about my case. He did nothing to represent me in a professional manner, prepare my case and pushed me into something once already in court. Feb. 14 was supposed to only be a roll call and I planned to ask for another attorney.. until Lir convinced me he would get the charges dropped. Upon initial meeting Lir appeared to be a good attorney, but after he got sick and went in the hospital, he did nothing and always appeared to be in a distant or altered state of mind. Cameras in the court should show when he walked up to us and told us about the charges being dropped, my gratitude, and then his confusing moves from there. Also it should show his physical and mental appearance and actions that day. He seemed to be a good attorney upon initial meeting, but after he went in the hospital his whole demeanor changed and his only concern was money. He couldn't remember things we discussed and argued until we sent him screenshots. But later he said he lost everything...Thank you. I've had no help or representation and plan to file a complaint with the Bar but this is all very difficult.
