Moments ago I filed an addition letter concerning requests previously filed by me on behalf of the Petitioner in the above captioned PCR Appeal. After I sent that letter in, I realized I had left off a very important request necessary to protect the Client's rights in the event none of our earlier requests were granted. I have corrected that omission in this amended version of my earlier letter of today's date. I have also attached a COS for both opposing counsel, Megan H. Jameson and SCCID, Appellate Counsel, Katherine Hudgins. I apologize for the confusion and thank you for fassisting me in filing these documents.
