⑥ Good Day To You,

S.C. SUPREME COURT

June 14, 2013

I'm not sure if it's you or the Courts in whom I'm to contact, I figure you since I posted my appeal to you.

If not, I apologize for taking up your time. Truthfully, I'm not sure with whom I am to address my questions.

Since Mrs. Carter placed in a Johnson's Brief, would she still be my legal representation; even now?

It's going on the eighth month since I turned in my appeal, was it received before the deadline?

What's the legal time frame on the Court's rendering of a decision, and from whom will I receive the answer?

There are a few more questions that I would like to ask, but I'm not sure whom to address them. Seeing as how Mr Chase Harbin handled my case, I'm in dreadfull fear of a repeating of such occurance(s). Other than waiting I know not what to do or prepare myself for.

Even though The Law says they should, court appointed representation is not guaranteeing the legal assistance that has been promised.

②

As stated earlier; I apologize for taking up your time. I just want to be sure that I am taking the correct steps and that I will (this time) get my fair bite of the apple.

I was forced to intrust my liberty in the ill capable hands of a court appointed attorney (Mr Chase Harbin), who did everything possible to destroy my life. Another one occuring is not what I am wanting.

So, if you will..... a response to these basic questions would be greatly appreciated by me.

And I promise to address my inquiries to the person you tell me is to be able to do this.

All I ask, is that the person to whom I take my questions actually takes the time and answers them truthfully. No B.S as before.

I look forward to a timely and righteous answer(s) to my dilemma(s). Please -n- Thank You So Much.
