Re: Tiffany Provence v. Dominion Energy South Carolina; Appellate Case No. 2020-000071

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

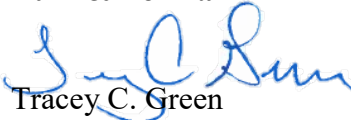

I am responding to the letter from counsel for Appellant Tiffany Provence dated April 4, 2023, and identifying certain information as pertinent supplemental citations. Respondent Dominion Energy South Carolina (“DESC”) objects to the submission of Item 3 by Appellant, an article by Bruce Broillet, because that article does not constitute appropriate “pertinent and significant” authority under Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR, as it is simply the expression of opinion by a person obviously not a witness before the Court. DESC further objects to the submission of Item 4 as verdict forms and Form 4 judgments do not constitute “pertinent and significant” authority under Rule 208(b)(7) and, furthermore, could not be part of the Record on Appeal under Rule 210, SCACR.

In not objecting to the other two items identified by Appellant, DESC does not concede the relevance or competence of either of those items.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Burr & Forman LLP
