SC Court of Appeals

The Petitioner David Miller respectfully request to be appointed Co-Counsel on the Appeal pending in this Honorable Court.

The Petitioner is a pre trial detainee, and argues he is currently imprisoned due to previous counsel being ineffective.

The Petitioner contends the Court will find it self evident that he filed and requested by direct motion a Fast and Speedy Trial November 15, 2022, December 2022, and January 2023, and the State failed to indict. And on February 10th, 2023 the Petitioner moved the Court to be discharged from imprisonment, pursuant to the South Carolina Code of Laws, Title 17, Chapter 23, Code 1976 § 17-23-90, The petitioner is entitled to relief, being discharged from imprisonment.

Two Part Motion 2 of 2.

The Petitioner Argues If It were Not For Ineffective Counsel and Court Error He would Not be Imprisoned, The Petitioner contends he has a right to Effective Counsel, but should Not be denied direct Access to The Courts Himself. Therefore The Petitioner respectfully requests the Court Appoint Co-Counsel.

2. (Request For Immediate release)

The Petitioner contends this Court will find it Evident He was and is entitled to discharge From Imprisonment Pursuant to Code 1576 §17-23-90. And respectfully requests Consideration For Immediate Release From Imprisonment.

Respectfully Submitted.

David S Miller.
