Reply Brief of Appellant

Harold Wilson

I Appellant Harold Wilson am responding to Respondants Cynthia Barnetts Intial Brief. The Attorney Ms Gina Ervin said on the date of the hearing I made no attempt to call the court on January 4, 2022 the date of the hearing in the Court of Common Pleas, Honorable Judge Micheal Holt. I did call that morning and tell them it was ~~no~~ no way I could make it because of my sickness, and I was informed by the guard at the front that if they do the temperature check and your temperature is high then they could not let me in. Ms Ervin ~~also~~ also said I did not give a doctors note stating my sickness. The court did not ask me for documentation to prove my sickness, otherwise it would have been no problem for me to provide it for the court.

Court reminded that the right to a fair hearing is required that the observations of the parties must be heard and duly examined. According to the principle a court has the obligation to proceed to an effective examinations of the complaints arguments, and evidence offered by the parties in order to access their pertinence.

Hager v. Reclamation, 111 U.S. 701, 708, (1884)

Due process of laws is process which following the forms of law, is appropriate to the case and just to the parties affected. It must be pursued in the ordinary mode prescribed by law, it must be adopted to the end to be attained and whenever necessary to the protection of the parties. It must give them an opportunity to be heard respecting the justice of the judgment sought.

Any legal proceeding enforced by public authority, whether sanctioned by age or custom or newly devised in the discretion of the legislative power, which regards and preserves these principles of liberty of justice, must be held to be "due process of laws". id at 708 Accord
