Appellate Case No. 2023-000155

Richard D. White

Appellant,

v.

Respondents.

Motion for extension of time to file Initial Brief and Designation of Matters

Comes now Appellant Richard D. White (“Appellant”) respectfully moves this Court for an Order granting him ability to serve and file his Initial Brief and Designation of Matters outside the filing deadline as set forth by Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and in support of this Motion, Appellant states and respectfully shows this Court the following:

1. Appellant’s initial brief is due today, April 5, 2023.
2. In finalizing the initial brief an issue was discovered in the existing version of the that requires correction, however, it is unclear whether this necessary revision can be completed by the current due date.

3. Appellant respectfully requests a very brief extension of time of no later than Monday, April 10, 2023.
4. After having conferred with Respondent, Appellant submits that this Motion is being filed without objection.
5. For these reasons above mentioned, Appellant is requesting an additional three (3) business days and five (5) calendar days to file his Initial Brief and Designation of Matters, which would allow for a deadline of April 10, 2023 to file the Initial Record on Appeal and Designation of Matters for Appellant.
