

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Saria Walker, Petitioner,

v.

South Carolina Department of Social Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2023-000555

ORDER

Petitioner has filed documents, which are being construed as a petition for a writ of certiorari from the South Carolina Court of Appeals' order of dismissal filed on November 22, 2022. Because the Court of Appeals did not rule on a petition for rehearing and the remittitur has now been sent pursuant to Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), the petition for a writ of certiorari is stricken and dismissed. See Rule 242(a), SCACR (providing this Court will only review a final decision of the Court of Appeals); Rule 242(c), SCACR (providing a decision is not final for the purposes of review until a petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been acted on by the Court of Appeals); Stogsdill v. S.C. Dep't of Health & Human Servs., 415 S.C. 568, 784 S.E.2d 669 (2016) (stating the sending of the remittitur ends appellate jurisdiction over a case).
