Re: Dominique Williams vs. SCDC and Florence Sheriff Department; 2020-CP-21-01272

Ms. Williams:

I was assigned to do a request for a transcript for the case referenced above on 1/27/2023. I wrote back to you on January 27, 2023, regarding your request of a transcript. I then sent another email on 2/8/2023, following up on the first letter. I then received a letter in the mail on February 25, 2023, with another letter requesting the same transcript. I am happy to help you, I just need you to read the attached letter and if will explain to you how to get it.

Please see the attached letter, informing you of the procedures to get a transcript. I will communicate with you via regular mail, since your email doesn't seem to be working. I am happy to answer any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Julie A. Cendroski

Re: Dominique Williams vs. SCDC and Florence Sheriff Department; 2020-CP-21-01272

I received your request for a transcript through the DCRP program on 1/27/2023. I have estimated that your transcript will be approximately 25 pages for the hearing on September 15th, 2022. At the current rate of $4.25 per page, the total estimated amount for the transcript will be approximately $106.25. If I have overestimated the pages, you will get a refund when transcript is delivered. If I have underestimated the number of pages, you will be sent an additional invoice for the rest of the fees due.

I require full payment in advance. I have 60 days in which to complete the transcript. The 60 days begins on the day I receive a certified check or money order made out to Julie Cendroski for the full amount of $106.25. I am happy to answer any questions or concerns you may have.

Sincerely,

Julie A. Cendroski
