Dear Ms. Staley: Per the below from Tammie Holmes, it appears that the hearing was not recorded via WebEx (even though the hearing was in-person), and therefore NO TRANSCRIPT of the hearing itself exists. Both parties submitted written Memorandum prior to the hearing and essentially argued their memos. What do we do when there is no transcript of the hearing??

Please advise. Thanks, Daniel

Good afternoon Mr. Draisen.

The court hearing was supposed to have been recorded via WebEx which was the court reporter for the hearing. Apparently the hearing did not get recorded.

Thank you.

I have reached out to Judge Verdin to try and see why this hearing was not on her WebEx recordings. I will let you all know as soon as I hear back from her.

Thank you.

The hearing was in-person and I was personally there to argue the case before Judge Verdin. Sorry.

Good morning Mr. Draisen.

I have looked through Judge Verdini's hearings for January 27, 2023 twice and she does not have this matter as one of the hearings she heard that day. Could this matter have possibly been heard on another date or by a different Judge?

Thank you.

Tammie: Have you been able to locate the name of the court reporter? We need to get this transcript ordered ASAP. The Court of Appeals has already sent a delinquency notice. Thanks, Daniel Tammie: This has been the issue with getting the transcript ordered. The hearing was originally scheduled to be by WebEx, but it was in fact held in person before Judge Verdini in Greenville.

We have had a time finding out who the court reporter was, and, to this date, still do not know who it was.

This was an in-person hearing. Can you help us please?? Thanks, Daniel

Ms. Holmes: We are trying to determine who the court reporter was regarding the hearing held before Judge Letitia H. Verdin on January 27, 2023 in Greenville County. The hearing is listed as being heard via WebEx, however this was an in-person hearing. We need to order the transcript for the Appeal and cannot identify the court reporter. Any expedited assistance you can give us would be greatly appreciated as we are late in ordering the transcript due to this issue. Thank You
