Case No.: 2019-CP-40-2219

ORDER DENYING APPLICANT'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE NEW TRIAL

2023 APR 10 PM 4:11

RICHLAND COUNTY
 FILED

This matter is before the Court by way of Applicant's "Motion to Reconsider or in the Alternative New Trial," filed on March 7, 2023. After consideration, the motion is DENIED.

Procedural History

This PCR application arises from an order finding Applicant in contempt of court. On October 6, 2010, the Honorable Marion O. Hanna held a motion hearing in the City of Columbia Municipal Court on several actions involving Applicant. During the hearing, Judge Hanna found Applicant in contempt of court. Judge Hanna sentenced Applicant to ten days in jail or a $50 fine.¹

On October 14, 2010, Applicant filed a pro se notice of appeal in the circuit court (2010-CP-40-7063). Thereafter, on April 8, 2011, the South Carolina Supreme Court issued an order prohibiting Applicant from filing pro se actions in South Carolina courts.² Applicant's appeal was set for a hearing on September 16, 2011, and Applicant appeared pro se. Due to the South Carolina Supreme Court's order prohibiting Applicant from proceeding pro se, the circuit court granted Applicant an additional thirty days to obtain counsel before ruling on her appeal. On November 1, 2011, the circuit court issued an order dismissing Applicant's appeal for failure to prosecute.

² Applicant appealed that order to the United States Supreme Court, which denied her petition for writ of certiorari on November 14, 2011.

DCB

On December 1, 2011, Applicant attempted to file a notice of appeal in the South Carolina Supreme Court. The following day, the Clerk of the South Carolina Supreme Court notified Applicant by letter that her appeal had not been accepted due to the prohibitions of the Supreme Court's April 8, 2011 order.^{3,4}

On July 11, 2013—more than twenty months after the circuit court dismissed her circuit court appeal and more than nineteen months after the South Carolina Supreme Court rejected her notice of appeal—Applicant filed a motion requesting appointment of counsel to perfect her appeal of the circuit court's denial of relief. On November 8, 2017, the circuit court issued an order denying Applicant's motion for appointment of counsel. Applicant filed a motion for partial reconsideration on November 9, 2017; that motion was denied on December 23, 2020. Applicant appealed that order to the South Carolina Supreme Court (2021-000047); the appeal was dismissed on August 31, 2022, and the remittitur was sent October 13, 2022.

Current Application

Applicant filed the current application for PCR on April 22, 2019, alleging her conviction was obtained in violation of her constitutional rights and she continues to suffer the consequences of the conviction for the following reasons:

1. "Complete denial of appellate counsel"

a. "When I appeared before Judge Barber on 16 September 2011, I advised him (and he so documented in 22 September 2011 ORDER) that I had contacted at least four private lawyers to represent me but they refused due to my inability to pay them. Judge Barber knew of my entitlement to state-appointed appellate counsel but did not even offer me one. That prejudiced me because at the time, I was not allowed to advocate pro se at all but I had many meritorious appeal issues, all of which I had preserved at CMC (which has no civil jurisdiction) and in my appellate pleadings filed before I was denied self-representation. I could have won my appeal if heard on its merits.”

³ Applicant "resubmitted" her notice of appeal on January 3, 2014. By letter dated February 21, 2014, the Clerk notified Applicant that her resubmitted notice of appeal would not be accepted.

⁴ On August 6, 2012, Applicant filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus in the Federal District Court seeking relief from this contempt proceeding. The District Court dismissed her habeas petition without prejudice on September 11, 2012, and the Fourth Circuit declined to issue a certificate of appealability on June 6, 2013.

2. “Per Robinson v. California, 370 U.S. 660, 667 (1962), criminalization of my legal and constitutionally-protected conduct violates the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The Eighth Amendment was made applicable to the states by the U.S. Supreme Court in Timbs v. Indiana, 586 U.S. ____ (decided 20 February 2019). This PCR is timely filed within one year of the Timbs decision per § 17-24-45(B), SC Code of Laws.”

a. “Zealous but polite examination of an adverse witness cannot be a crime. Marion violated Amendment XIII by holding me in contempt in this context of the 6 October 2010 hearing CMC-made audio recording of the entire 6 October 2010 CMC court day is also available and proves that I was speaking politely and observing decorum throughout the day.”

3. “After-discovered evidence of actual innocence. This PCR is timely filed within one year of the most recent discovery of evidence per § 17-24-25(B), SC Code of laws.”

a. “Marion wrote and self-published a second so-called novel which betrays her morbid hatred of all people, particularly females smarter and prettier than Marion, and her fantasies to shoot females and/or cause them to be ‘locked up’ in psychiatric hospitals. Marion offered to waive my fine if I submitted to psychiatric examination. Review of other transcripts and of her treatment of her own mother-in-law establishes that fixation and proves that Marion held me in contempt to extort me to undergo psychiatric examination, all to satisfy her own degraded sadistic lusts, not because I did anything even remotely resembling contempt.”

4. “Through no fault of mine, the transcript of 16 September 2011 hearing before SC Circuit Court Judge Barber was lost or destroyed. I have a constitutional right to said transcript under Chessman v. Teets, 350 U.S. 3 (1955).”

a. “In May-August 2016, I duly contacted SC Court Administration to obtain the transcript of the 16 September 2011 hearing, which must be kept for five years; but I received in writing confirmation that the court reporter (Ms. L. Coconut Pantsari) who was assigned to that court that day cannot find her recording of the transcript of my hearing.”

Respondent filed a return moving to dismiss this application pursuant to the statute of limitations.

On November 17, 2022, an evidentiary hearing convened before the Honorable D. Craig Brown.

DCB

Applicant was represented by Timothy L. Griffith, Esquire. Assistant Attorney General Danielle Dixon represented Respondent. Despite being notified by this Court on November 2, 2022, that she would be required to appear in-person at this hearing, Applicant did not attend.⁵ In her absence, Mr. Griffith did not have any witnesses to call or any other evidence to present. Based on Applicant's failure to attend and submit any evidence or testimony to support the allegations in her application, this Court found Applicant failed to meet her burden of proof. This Court further found this action was barred by the statute of limitations. On February 8, 2023, this Court issued an order of dismissal. On March 3, 2023, Applicant served a copy of her "Motion to Reconsider or in the Alternative New Trial" on Respondent.

Denial of Applicant's Motion

In her Motion to Reconsider, Applicant contends this Court "had and should have considered a Judgment on the voluminous Pleadings." After reviewing Applicant's motion and this Court's order of dismissal, this Court finds Applicant's argument is without merit. This Court's order of dismissal found Applicant failed to present any evidence to support the allegations in her application and amendment, and thus failed to meet her burden of proof. This Court further found Applicant's application was barred by the statute of limitations. Applicant has not alleged any argument was overlooked or misapprehended by this Court. Further, Applicant is not requesting an alteration or amendment to the Order; rather, Applicant is asking this Court to reconsider its ruling and grant Applicant post-conviction relief. This Court sees no basis to reconsider its ruling; thus, this Court finds this motion should be denied in full.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 6 day of April, 2023.
