P R O C E E D I N G S

THE PROBATION AGENT: Your Honor, our next matter's gonna be Quentin Hardy. That will be Agent Sumter. Quentin Hardy. Agent Sumter.

THE BAILIFF: Sir, raise your right-hand.

(WHEREUPON, the Defendant complies.)

THE BAILIFF: State your full name and speak into the mic please, sir.

THE DEFENDANT: Quentin Hardy.

THE BAILIFF: Do you -- keep your hand up, sir.

(WHEREUPON, the Defendant was placed under oath at this time.)

THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, do you have an attorney representing you, sir?

THE DEFENDANT: I do. Mr. Little.

THE COURT: Okay. Do -- was he appointed to represent you on some new charges?

THE DEFENDANT: That also.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: And as well as the probation violation.

THE COURT: Okay.

SOLICITOR BROWN: And, Your Honor, I actually am prosecuting the new case, and I, I do understand that Mr. Little is the attorney for both of them. That's part of

1 the reason I was hanging around. I heard his name called.

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And, Your Honor, I will---

3 THE COURT: Okay. Can I get somebody---

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I'll try to find Mr. Little.

5 SOLICITOR BROWN: I know Mr. Routzong also just now
6 went out to try and find him.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Okay. He was in here earlier. We're gonna
9 try to locate him.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

11 THE COURT: I'm just gonna look at your file here while 12 we're waiting on Mr. Little to come in.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Uh-huh. (Affirmative).

14 SOLICITOR BROWN: Here comes Mr. Little.

15 MR. LITTLE: Beg the Court's indulgence.

16 THE COURT: Sure.

17 (Pause.)

18 MR. LITTLE: Your Honor, I represent Mr. Hardy on some 19 General Sessions charges. He applied for this charge, the 20 probation violation, but it had not worked its way through 21 our system yet. So, I've not actually been appointed on his 22 case yet.

23 I'm happy to represent him if Your Honor wishes to 24 appoint me. It just -- it takes a few weeks for things to 25 go through our process, and I just don't think we've had

1 enough time, but --.

2 THE COURT: Well, yes, if I can appoint you to
3 represent him.

4 You're representing him on some---

5 MR. LITTLE: I represent him---

6 THE COURT: ---new charges?

7 MR. LITTLE: ---on a General Sessions charge with 8 Mr. Brown.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Then, yes, I'll go ahead and appoint
10 you.

11 Do you need some time to talk with him?

12 Are you---

13 MR. LITTLE: Just a couple minutes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MR. LITTLE: And I'll tell the Court we're ready to go
16 on Ricardo Cabbagestalk whenever the Court's ready.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want us to call
18 Mr. Cabbagestalk---

19 MR. LITTLE: Well, just---

20 THE COURT: ---or you want me to give you a chance to 21 talk with him first?

22 MR. LITTLE: It doesn't matter. I'm just -- I'm just
23 letting probation know for their, for their organization
24 process.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 (WHEREUPON, a recess was taken in this case at this
2 time.)

3 THE PROBATION AGENT: Your Honor, we're gonna go back
4 on record on Mr. Quentin Hardy.

5 SOLICITOR BROWN: Your Honor, may it please the Court
6 and Mr. Hardy?

7 THE COURT: Uh-huh. (Affirmative).

8 SOLICITOR BROWN: The State of South Carolina also has
9 a pending indictment against Mr. Hardy. This is true billed
10 Indictment 2019-GS-43-0011. It is a three count indictment
11 for possession of cocaine base, possession of heroin,
12 possession of marijuana. That being a second or subsequent
13 offense on the marijuana charge. Your Honor, we're pleading
14 him to Counts 2 and 3 as indicted.

15 Your Honor, those are -- the, the marijuana charge is a
16 zero to one year offense. The heroin charge is a zero to 17 two year offense. The State's recommending a concurrent
18 sentence with the probation revocation. He's indicated he 19 wishes to plead guilty on those charges.

20 Permission to approach?

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 Okay. I think we've already sworn Mr. Hardy
23 previously?

24 THE BAILIFF: Yes, ma'am.

25 THE COURT: Sir, you're still under oath.

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

2 THE COURT: I understand that you're here today to
3 plead guilty to possession of marijuana second offense,
4 which carries up to one year, and possession of heroin first
5 offense, which carries up to two years.

6 Is that your understanding, sir?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: And then we're also gonna deal with the 9 probation violation allegations.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: And now you've had a chance to discuss this 12 with Mr. Little?

13 THE DEFENDANT: We have.

14 THE COURT: And are you satisfied with what your 15 attorney's done for you?

16 THE DEFENDANT: I am.

17 THE COURT: You're not under the influence of any drugs
18 or alcohol today?

19 THE DEFENDANT: No.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything to keep you from making a
21 good decision?

22 THE DEFENDANT: No, there isn't.

23 THE COURT: Has anyone promised you anything to try to 24 get you to plead guilty to these two charges?

25 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: Has anyone forced, threatened, or coerced
2 you to try to get you to do this today?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: You understand you're waiving some
5 Constitutional rights when you enter this plea today?

6 THE DEFENDANT: I do.

7 THE COURT: You're waiving your Constitutional right to
8 remain silent. If you went forward with a trial, the State
9 could not force you to testify. And if you chose not to 10 testify, nobody can hold that against you. It's a
11 Constitutional right.

12 When you plead guilty, you're waiving that right to 13 remain silent, and you understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: I do.

15 THE COURT: You're waiving your Constitutional right to 16 a jury trial, to have 12 citizens hear the evidence against 17 you, and let them decide whether you're guilty or not
18 guilty.

19 When you plead guilty, you waive that right to a jury
20 trial, and you understand that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

22 THE COURT: If you went forward with a trial, the State
23 would have the burden of proving you guilty beyond a
24 reasonable doubt, and all 12 jurors have to be firmly
25 convinced of your guilt before you can be convicted.

1 when you plead guilty, you waive that right because
2 you're admitting guilt, and you understand that?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I do.

4 THE COURT: Also, if you went forward with a trial,
5 each of the witnesses for the State would have to testify in
6 open Court. Your attorney could ask them questions on
7 cross-examination. He could present a defense on your
8 behalf, and he could subpoena witnesses to come to Court and 9 testify for you.

10 But, again, you waive those rights today when you enter
11 this plea, and you understand that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

13 THE COURT: And, again, Mr. Hardy, you understand that
14 your guilty plea on these charges will have a negative
15 impact on your probation case?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: And you realize that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Now I do, yes.

19 THE COURT: Well, I mean you knew that they had already
20 charged you with probation violation?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Correct.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And, Mr. Hardy, knowing all of those
23 Constitutional rights, and what you're waiving today by 24 entering a guilty plea, are you pleading guilty or not
25 guilty?

1 THE DEFENDANT: I'm guilty.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I'm gonna hear the facts from Mr.
3 Brown, and then I'll have a few more questions for you.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

5 SOLICITOR BROWN: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

6 Your Honor, on November 17th, 2018, law enforcement
7 responded to Edgewater Drive and Liberty Street here in
8 Sumter. There was a vehicle parked in the middle of the 9 road with a driver who was unconscious.

10 Based upon this, law enforcement came up to the 11 vehicle, and they tapped on the window. The Defendant was 12 the person who was the driver of this vehicle. He indicated
13 he'd fallen asleep when backing out to let someone else out
14 of the driveway. At that point they also realized that 15 there was an open warrant out for Probation, Pardon, and
16 Parole, I believe, for a trafficking in marijuana charge
17 that he was on probation for.

18 So that -- and they also had information he may be 19 armed and dangerous. So, they had him exit the vehicle. As 20 he was exiting the vehicle, they saw drug paraphernalia in 21 the door. I believe glass pipes commonly used for smoking
22 controlled substances. They ended up finding a plastic bag
23 in the door not long thereafter that contained -- well,
24 suspected to be what later tested positive as .36 grams of 25 crack cocaine, .14 grams of heroin, and 1.3 grams of

1 marijuana.

2 Your Honor, he's pleading guilty to the heroin and the
3 marijuana. We're dismissing the crack cocaine charge.

4 Your Honor, he's got a pretty significant criminal
5 history, but I'm pretty sure he was on probation at that
6 time for trafficking marijuana, which would clearly make
7 this a second offense. He was convicted of trafficking in
8 marijuana on February, 2014, where he received 10 years
9 suspended to three years followed by three years probation.
10 There was a number of other charges that came out of that 11 same arrest date which he's also on probation for, but that
12 would be the basis for this being a second offense.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, are those facts true, sir?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 MR. LITTLE: And, Your Honor, for the record also,
16 about your previous questions, I just, for the record, I
17 informed Mr. Hardy that these pleas would, in addition to 18 the probation violations he's already facing, would be yet
19 another violation.

20 THE COURT: Okay. I do find that there is a sufficient
21 factual basis for me to accept your plea, and I find that 22 you're entering this plea freely and voluntarily with the 23 advice of Mr. Little who you tell me you're satisfied with.
24 So, be glad to accept your plea.

25 Do you want me to hear from you or you want me to hear

1 from them first?

2 MR. LITTLE: I think it'd be easier to hear from
3 probation first, and then hear from me at the end.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 THE PROBATION AGENT: Your Honor, these are the cases
6 of Quentin Hardy. Sentence on Indictment 2010-GS-43-00059,
7 2014-GS-43-00188, and GS, I'm sorry, 2014-GS-43-00190. The
8 offenses are trafficking marijuana, burglary nonviolent
9 second degree, and distribution of drugs. He was, he was 10 sentenced by Judge Cothran on 2/10 of 2014. Given 10 years,
11 provided upon the service of three years, suspended with 12 three years probation.

13 As far as reporting, he reported on 3/13/2019 and was 14 to report back on 4/10/2019, and did not do so.

15 In reference to his prior violations, on 8/2/2016, he 16 failed to pay on all accounts. We did a Form 1182 extending
17 his case to the full five years, restructuring his Court
18 surcharge, and the restitution, allowing the case to go into 19 administrative monitoring at the end, and a civil judgment.

20 2/23/17, again failed to pay on all accounts. Form
21 1462 was signed by Judge James restructuring Court
22 surcharges, having his drug test fee paid, paid within 30
23 days, pay supervision fees at a rate of $25.00 for six
24 months.

25 12/14/2018 regarding him for failing to report, failing

1 to pay supervision fees, failing to pay -- and looks like a
2 number of things, and you revoked six months and continuing
3 him on probation. And you said to attend Drug Court upon
4 release.

5 well, we're here today because he failed to report.
6 Last reported 3/13/2019. He missed his report date of 7 4/10/2019 nor did he contact his agent anytime after.

8 violated Condition Number 6, failed to refrain from law
9 enforcement contact. Arrested on 5/13/19 for the offense of 10 driving under suspension, license not suspended for DUI
11 second. Violating, violating Condition Number 6 again, law
12 enforcement contact, giving false information to law
13 enforcement.

14 violating Condition Number 7, failing to pay
15 supervision fees.

16 violating Condition Number 9, failing to pay Court
17 surcharge. Again -- the Court surcharges.

18 He violated one more of the conditions on Citation
19 Number C43190071, violated Condition Number 10 by he --
20 because he failed to comply with Clerk of Court. He was to 21 attend and complete Drug Court after his release.

22 Again, he violated Condition Number 6. He was
23 convicted in Magistrate Court on 5/24/2019 for the offense
24 of driving under suspension, license not suspended for a DUI
25 second offense.

1 Your Honor, they're certain people that you always seem
2 to remember. Quentin's one of those people. We went out
3 about a week ago arresting people, and we stood at Quentin's
4 residence for about 30 minutes cause, as we knocked on the 5 door, we could hear movement, and we could hear that it was
6 a relatively large person running through the house or going
7 back and forth.

8 So, I went over and talked to his granddaddy, who, in
9 my mind, is one of the best people here in Sumter County,
10 and I asked him, I said, sir, is Quentin in there. He said
11 son, I don't know. He said he should be because I know his 12 son, and that girl in there, and the baby's in there. I
13 said okay. I said sir, we shouldn't have to stand out here
14 this long. I said he's been in jail a bunch of times. He 15 should know that we're here for a probation violation. He
16 said son, if I had a key, I would let you in. I said okay.

17 So, we knocked and knocked and knocked. Eventually we 18 got into the residence. We got into the residence. We
19 found Quentin apparently passed out under the bed under a
20 blanket. Our regional director then kept saying hey, man,
21 hey, you know, you need to get on up from there. A member
22 of the Sheriff's Department then placed him into custody,
23 and he appeared to be unresponsive or life, or lifeless.

24 We're all just kind of looking at him thinking okay, we
25 don't see any paraphernalia. We don't see anything. This

1 is all an act. By that time, Supervisor Davidson and
2 another member of the Sheriff's Department were taking him
3 to the threshold, and I guess maybe his arm or leg or 4 something hit the threshold. He woke up, and, at that
5 point, he wanted his shoes, and we took him and put him in
6 the vehicle. And from the time that we took him in the 7 vehicle, even up to just a couple days, his main question
8 was who's gonna be the judge. If it's Kristi Curtis, I
9 ain't getting no time.

10 So, we're here for this probation violation. We've 11 given this gentleman chance after chance. Judge Lane is 12 here to speak on his attendance in Drug Court. We're asking
13 for a revocation and terminate.

14 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

15 JUDGE LANE: Judge, we got a referral. He never showed 16 up. We notified probation that we never saw him.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Yes, sir.

19 MR. LITTLE: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 I talked to Mr. Hardy. In fact, I talked to him on the 21 phone at one point while he was out.

22 During a lot of this time he's been down in Charleston
23 working with no transportation to get back. That's why he 24 said he didn't report like he was suppose so.

25 Judge, he's got six children. He's trying to work.

1 He's the only means of income for them. We would
2 respectfully ask that -- ask the Court for six months of
3 house arrest or something that allows him to continue to
4 work, and provide for his family without going to the 5 Department of Corrections. But, Judge, he tells me that he
6 was in Charleston and that -- without a way to get back, and 7 that's why he wasn't reporting or going to Drug Court.

8 THE COURT: And I'm sorry.

9 What was the recommendation on the other charges?

10 SOLICITOR BROWN: Your Honor, I think they've got him
11 for seven years hanging over his head. So, we're just 12 recommending concurrent since none of ours carries anywhere
13 near that.

14 MR. LITTLE: And, Judge, Mr. Hardy is indicating to me
15 he wants to address the Court as well.

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 THE DEFENDANT: Hello, Ms. Curtis.

18 THE COURT: Hello.

19 THE DEFENDANT: Understand I, you know, I was wrong on 20 some of the charges or some of the offenses. And, you know,
21 I been on probation now since September 1st, 2015, and I
22 know that. As Mr. Sumter said, I've known Mr. Sumter for a
23 long time. Almost 20 years now. And it never wasn't my 24 intention to do anything wrong or anything like that.

25 You know, I just been providing for my kids, providing

1 for my family. Like I say, I'm the only means of trans --
2 of, of taking care of my family. I got -- I have three kids
3 that stay with me now, and me and the fiancée, we been
4 together for the last 15 years.

5 So, I'm always at home other than working, and the Drug
6 Court issue, I, I was, I was under the impression that I
7 would have to pay $150.00 fee to get inside of there, and I
8 haven't had the money to get there yet. But it's been tough
9 and it's been, you know, kind of rough with the money
10 situation, and then, you know, I've always -- also had drug
11 issues, and, you know, I been doing drugs for a long time
12 now, and I do need help.

13 I, you know, I'm willing that I do need help, and, you
14 know, some type of counseling cause you know what I'm 15 saying. I, I honestly do want to know what is wrong with 16 myself, you know, and being taken away from my family, you
17 know, my, my daughter just turned one yesterday, and being
18 taken away from my family, you know, sometimes I have time
19 to reflect and see what it is that, that's troubling me, and 20 see what is going on with me.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, that was kind of our purpose
22 last time was to revoke six months, and give you an
23 opportunity to go in Drug Court. Probation has been a
24 failure. You got a pretty good deal to get three years
25 active time on a burglary second, distribution, and a

1 trafficking charge. I mean that was kind of a gift.

2 I'm gonna revoke four years on your probation. Allow
3 the time to satisfy the financial obligations, and then
4 terminate this case.

5 The Sentence on the possession of marijuana second
6 offense is one year. That will be concurrent with your
7 probation revocation. The Sentence on your possession of 8 heroin first offense will be two years. That will also be
9 concurrent with your probation revocation. I'm giving you
10 credit on both of those cases for any time that you've 11 served.

12 THE DEFENDANT: So, you're gonna give me the -- for the 13 probation revocation I've already done did six months on 14 that for the last one.

15 So, I get the probation revocation and all that also?

16 MR. LITTLE: Judge?

17 THE COURT: You -- you're not getting credit for the 18 six months that you did on the previous revocation. You
19 still have six and a half years hanging over your head. I'm 20 giving you four.

21 MR. LITTLE: And, and you're terminating at the end of 22 that four years?

23 THE COURT: I'm terminating at the end of the four 24 years.

25 MR. LITTLE: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE PROBATION AGENT: Civil, civil judgment for the
2 restitution, Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 THE PROBATION AGENT: Thank you.

5 SOLICITOR BROWN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. LITTLE: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

In response to the post-conviction relief application filed December 6, 2019, by Quentin D. Hardy (Applicant), Respondent (the State) would show this Court:

I. Procedural History

Applicant is presently confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections pursuant to orders of commitment of the Sumter County Clerk of Court. Applicant was indicted by the Sumter County Grand Jury for second-degree burglary (2014-GS-43-0188). Applicant pleaded guilty to this charge as indicted and was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, suspended upon the service of three years' imprisonment and three years' probation. Applicant was subsequently indicted for possession of cocaine, possession of heroin, and possession of marijuana, second offense (2019-GS-43-0011). Applicant pleaded guilty to possession of heroin and possession of marijuana before the Honorable Kristi F. Curtis. Tyler Brown of the Third Circuit Solicitor's Office prosecuted the case. Applicant was represented by Philip D. Little of the Third Circuit Public Defender's Office. Judge Curtis sentenced Applicant to one year of imprisonment for possession of marijuana and two years of imprisonment for possession of heroin. Judge Curtis also revoked four years of Applicant's probation. Applicant did not pursue a direct appeal.

II. Factual Background

Assistant Solicitor Brown summarized the facts of Applicant's case at Applicant's guilty plea hearing as follows:

“On November 17, 2018, law enforcement responded to Edgewater Drive and Liberty Street here in Sumter. There was a vehicle parked in the middle of the road with a driver who was unconscious. Based upon this, law enforcement came up to the vehicle. And they tapped on the window. [Applicant] was the person who was the driver of this vehicle. He indicated he'd fallen asleep when backing out to let someone else out of the driveway. At that point they also realized that there was an open warrant out for Probation, Pardon, and Parole, I believe for trafficking in marijuana charge that he was on probation for.

So that – and they had information he may be armed and dangerous. So, they had him exit the vehicle. As he was exiting the vehicle, they saw drug paraphernalia in the door. I believe glass pipes commonly used for smoking controlled substances. They ended up finding a plastic bag in the door not long thereafter that contained – well, suspected to be what later tested positive as .36 grams of crack cocaine, .14 grams of heroin, and 1.3 grams of marijuana.”

(GP Tr. 10).

II. Allegations Raised and Relief Sought in Application

In his application for post-conviction relief, Applicant makes several allegations, which Respondent interprets as the following:

1. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel
2. Illegal Sentence – Sentences Exceed Maximum Sentences Allowed by Statute

As requested relief, Applicant states he is seeking “credit for time served to be applied properly by South Carolina Department of Corrections.”¹

Attached herewith and incorporated herein by reference are the records of the Sumter County Clerk of Court regarding the subject convictions, the plea/probation revocation hearing transcript, and Applicant's records for the Department of Corrections. Respondent reserves the right to amend its return upon the receipt of other relevant records.

IV. Response to Allegations of Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Applicant asserts his plea/probation revocation counsel was constitutionally ineffective, but wholly fails to set forth with specificity the facts and circumstances upon which his ineffective assistance of counsel claim is based.

The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees a defendant the right to effective assistance of counsel. U.S. Const. amend. VI; Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668 (1984); Lomax v. State, 379 S.C. 93, 665 S.E.2d 164 (2008). In a post-conviction relief action, an applicant bears the burden of proving the allegations in his or her application. Butler v. State, 286 S.C. 441, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). Where the application alleges ineffective assistance of counsel as a ground for relief, the applicant must prove that "counsel's conduct so undermined the proper functioning of the adversarial process that [it] cannot be relied upon as having produced a just result." Strickland, 466 U.S. 668. Butler, 286 S.C. at 442, 334 S.E.2d at 814.

In evaluating allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel, the reviewing court applies the two-pronged test outlined in Strickland, 466 U.S. 668. First, an applicant must prove that counsel's performance was deficient. Id.; Cherry v. State, 300 S.C. 115, 117, 386 S.E.2d 624, 625 (1989). Under this prong, the court measures an attorney's performance by its "reasonableness under prevailing professional norms." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117, 386 S.E.2d at 625 (quoting Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690). The proper measure of performance is whether an attorney provided representation within the range of competence required in criminal cases. Butler, 286 S.C. at 442, 334 S.E.2d at 814. "Counsel is strongly presumed to have rendered adequate assistance and made all significant decisions in the exercise of reasonable professional judgment." Id. (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690). The applicant must overcome this presumption to receive relief. Cherry, 300 S.C. at 118, 386 S.E.2d at 625. Second, counsel's deficient performance must have prejudiced the applicant such that "there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's unprofessional errors, the result of the proceeding would have been different." Cherry, 300 S.C. at 117-18, 386 S.E.2d at 625. With respect to guilty plea counsel, Applicant must show that there is a reasonable probability that, but for counsel's alleged errors, he would not have pleaded guilty and would have insisted on going to trial. Hill v. Lockhart, 474 U.S. 52 (1985).

As discussed above, it is impossible for Respondent to adequately respond to Applicant's allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel because Applicant has completely failed to provide any specific allegations or facts to support such claims. Respondent requests Applicant, through counsel, provide specific claims and facts to support this vague allegation.

V. Response to Illegal Sentence Allegation

In his application, Applicant alleges his sentences exceed the maximum allowed under their respective statutes. Respondent submits this allegation must be summarily dismissed as the allegation is directly refuted by the record and there is no genuine issue of material fact. Wilson v. State, 348 S.C. 215 (2002).

Applicant was indicted and pleaded guilty to possession of heroin and possession of marijuana, second offense. Pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws §44-53-0370(d)(1), possession of heroin, first offense is punishable by no more than two years imprisonment or a fine of not more than five-thousand dollars, or both. Pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws §44-53-0370(d)(4), possession of marijuana, second offense is punishable by not more than one year of imprisonment or a fine of two-hundred to one thousand dollars, or both. Applicant was sentenced to one year of imprisonment for possession of marijuana and two years of imprisonment for possession of heroin. Accordingly, Applicant's sentences did not exceed the statutory maximum sentences. Accordingly, this allegation must be dismissed as a matter of law.

V. Motion for More Definite Statement

In her application, Applicant fails to set forth with specificity the facts and circumstances upon which several of his vague claim of ineffective assistance of counsel is based. The Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act requires that the Applicant must “. . . specifically set forth the grounds upon which the application is based.” Section 17-27-50 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina (1976). In an application for post-conviction relief, it is incumbent upon Applicant to make at least a prima facie showing which would entitle him to relief before an evidentiary hearing will be scheduled and held. Welch v. MacDougall, 246 S.C. 258, 143 S.E.2d 455 (1965); Blandshaw v. State, 245 S.C. 385, 140 S.E.2d 784 (1965).

Applicant has failed to state with any specificity the specific facts giving rise to his allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel. Additionally, this allegation is not supported by any other additional information in the application. Respondent moves pursuant to Rule 12(e), SCRPC, to require Applicant to provide a more definite statement of her allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. The Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act requires applicants to “specifically set forth the grounds upon which the application is based.” S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-50 (1985) (emphasis added). Furthermore, Rule 8(a), SCRPC, requires all civil pleadings include “a short and plain statement of the facts showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Therefore, Respondent moves to require Applicant to file an amended application well in advance of the hearing scheduled in this matter. If Applicant fails to file a timely and responsive amended application setting forth specific allegations for relief, Respondent reserves the right to move to dismiss the allegation.

VII. Any Future Amendments and Invocation of Discovery Process

Applicant must specify any claims he intends to raise at the PCR evidentiary hearing. All claims should be made well in advance of the evidentiary hearing. Because Applicant has been appointed an attorney, the attorney, and not Applicant, is the only individual authorized to file amendments to this application. See Rule 11, SCRPC. Pro se filings will not be considered at the PCR hearing. The State reserves the right to request that any amendments withheld until the last minute be stricken because of undue prejudice to the State pursuant to Love v. State, Op. No. 27921 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Oct. 2, 2019) (Shearouse Adv. Sh. No. 39 at 14), or, alternatively, the State will request a continuance in the matter. See Love, at 24 (Kittredge, J., dissent) (“If, however, the proposed amendment . . . would truly prejudice the State, the better course of action would be to continue the matter and thus remove any possibility of prejudice resulting from the belated amendments.”).

Pursuant to § 17-27-150 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, Applicant may not invoke formal discovery processes to issue subpoenas or otherwise obtain discovery materials unless granted leave from the Court upon a showing of good cause. Furthermore, Respondent requests that all potential exhibits and materials used to produce potential expert witness testimony be sent to Respondent well in advance of the evidentiary hearing. Respondent reserves the right to request a continuance and oppose witness testimony and exhibits that are withheld until the last minute resulting in undue prejudice to Respondent.

VIII. Response to Any and All Other Allegations

Each and every allegation contained within the application not expressly admitted, qualified, or explained in this return is hereby denied.

IX. Request for Amended Allegations and Partial Summary Dismissal

WHEREFORE, having made its return, Respondent requests applicant, through his counsel, amend the application to provide the required specificity for the aforementioned allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel. Respondent further requests Applicant's illegal sentence allegation be summarily dismissed as a matter of law.

Respectfully submitted,

ALAN WILSON

Based upon further investigation and research, the Post-Conviction Relief Application filed on behalf of the above named Applicant is hereby Amended TO INCLUDE as follows:

11. State concisely and in the same order the facts which support each of the grounds set out in (10):

Mr. Hardy has no claim for ineffective counsel. He cannot elaborate on any actual ineffectiveness.

HOWEVER; Mr. Hardy's claim of Illegal sentence is actually a claim that he is being held beyond his sentence due to an error by SCDC in not giving him credit for his time served as ordered by the sentencing Judge.

Mr. Hardy served, according to Mr. Hardy, 265 days pre-sentencing on his charge for Burglary and trafficking. Additionally, Mr. Hardy claims he also served 261 days on a drug charge. According to Mr. Hardy, he was only given 20 days credit in total.

In support of his claims, I have forwarded to the AG office supporting records provided by Mr. Hardy.

Mr. Hardy would ask the Judge to order SCDC to reexamine his time served and give full credit.

THE COURT: Good afternoon, everyone.

Mr. Neubauer, are you ready to proceed?

MR. NEUBAUER: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Before we get started, I'm going to go over the video conferencing questioning with Mr. Hardy.

Mr. Hardy, can you hear me?

THE APPLICANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Raise your right hand for me, please.

QUENTIN HARDY, after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, as you can see, we are proposing to conduct your Post-Conviction Relief hearing via video conferencing. Do you specifically consent to conducting this hearing via video conference and waive your right to appear before the Court in person?

THE APPLICANT: Yes.

THE COURT: And do you, likewise, consent to your attorney, Mr. Griffith, the Assistant Attorney General and any witnesses who may testify in this case, likewise, appearing via video conference and not appearing before the Court in person?

THE APPLICANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

Mr. Neubauer, if you could give us the procedural

1 history and kind of set the stage for where we are here
2 today.

3 MR. NEUBAUER: Yes, Your Honor. May it please the
4 Court. The next matter is Quentin Hardy vs. The State of
5 South Carolina, docket number 2019-CP-43-2402. In January
6 of 2010, the Sumter County Grand Jury indicted Mr. Hardy for 7 trafficking marijuana, that's 2010-GS-43-0059.
8 Additionally, in February of 2014, the Sumter County Grand
9 Jury indicted Applicant for second degree burglary,
10 possession with intent to distribute cocaine and possession
11 with intent to distribute heroin, that's 2014-GS-43-0188,
12 0187 and 0190 respectively. Applicant pled guilty to these
13 charges as indicted and was sentenced by the Honorable R.
14 Ferrell Cothran to a ten-year imprisonment, suspended upon
15 the service of three years imprisonment and three years
16 probation.

17 Applicant was subsequently indicted in January of 2019
18 for possession of cocaine, possession of heroin and 19 possession of marijuana second offense. This is 20 2019-GS-43-0011. Phillip Little represented Applicant and
21 Tyler Brown of the Third Circuit Solicitor's Office
22 prosecuted the case. Applicant pled guilty to possession of 23 heroin and possession of marijuana before the Honorable
24 Kristi F. Curtis. Judge Curtis sentenced Applicant to one
25 year imprisonment for possession of marijuana and two years

1 of imprisonment for possession of heroin. Judge Curtis also
2 revoked four years of Applicant's probation. Applicant did
3 not pursue a direct appeal.

4 On December 6, 2019, Applicant filed an application for
5 Post-Conviction Relief. Through his application, he stated
6 he's being held unlawfully and to ineffective assistance of
7 counsel and an illegal sentence, stating that his sentence
8 exceeded the maximum sentence allowed by statute. As 9 requested relief, Applicant stated he is seeking for credit
10 for time served to be properly applied by SCDC.

11 On March 2nd, 2020, the State made its return in a
12 motion for a more definite statement and a partial Motion to 13 Dismiss seeking summary dismissal of Applicant's claim that 14 he was not given proper credit for time served and
15 requesting a more definite statement regarding Applicant's
16 allegation of ineffective assistance of counsel.

17 Applicant filed an amended allegation through his
18 attorney. In these amended allegations, Applicant stated
19 that he has no claim of ineffective of counsel; that he 20 could not elaborate on any actual ineffectiveness. Mr.
21 Hardy's claim of illegal sentence is actually a claim that
22 he is being held beyond his sentence due to an error by SCDC
23 in not giving him credit for his time served as ordered by 24 the sentencing judge. Mr. Hardy served, according to Mr.
25 Hardy, 265 days pre-sentencing for burglary and trafficking.

1 Mr. Hardy claims that he also served 261 days on a drug
2 charge. According to Mr. Hardy, he was only given 20 days
3 credit in total. And Mr. Hardy asked the Judge to order
4 SCDC to reexamine his time-served credit and give full
5 credit.

6 The State would move to dismiss this matter stating
7 that PCR is not the appropriate forum to handle this. Mr.
8 Hardy has been given credit for time served for his 2014
9 plea. He was initially sentenced to three years in prison.
10 His sentencing date was February 10, 2014; however, his
11 sentence start date as calculated by SCDC is May 23rd, 2013,
12 for the allegations of trafficking marijuana and May 25th,
13 2013, for possession of heroin, July 2nd, 2013, for cocaine
14 possession and July 8th for the burglary second degree. It
15 indicates that he was, in fact, given credit for time served
16 prior to him pleading on these charges. Additionally, he 17 was given credit for time served regarding his most current 18 plea in 2019.

19 Under the case Al-Shabazz vs. State, the South Carolina
20 Supreme Court determined that credit-related matters are not
21 an appropriate -- or are not appropriately handled through
22 Post-Conviction Relief and that he should pursue the
23 Administrative Procedure Act if he wishes to appeal a
24 decision by the South Carolina Department of Corrections in 25 determining what credit for time served he should be given.

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Neubauer, before we get
2 started with any testimony, how does the -- how does
3 Al-Shabazz square with the case of Hayes vs. State, which is 4 found at 413 S.C. 553? It seems like it's a fairly similar
5 situation to what we have here and the Court of Appeals in
6 that case ruled that PCR was a proper forum for an issue
7 whether a defendant had served beyond the maximum amount
8 authorized by law because of failure to receive credit for 9 time served. Tell me how Al-Shabazz applies in this
10 situation and why Hayes vs. State wouldn't?

11 MR. NEUBAUER: Yes, Your Honor. Regarding Al-Shabazz,
12 the claims -- I beg the Court's indulgence to allow me to 13 find the exact quote that I'm looking for.

14 (Pause.)

15 MR. NEUBAUER: I apologize, Your Honor, I'm unable to 16 find the exact reference to Al-Shabazz that I was looking 17 for, however, the State's contention regarding -- the 18 State's stance regarding Hayes vs. State indicate -- within 19 Hayes vs. State that indicates that full credit shall be 20 given for time served prior to trial and sentencing. We 21 contend that this, in fact, has happened.

22 In Hayes vs. State specifically, the Applicant was 23 sentenced to time served with the remainder of his sentence
24 suspended. However, in Mr. Hardy's case, he initially was 25 required to serve three years in prison with the remainder

1 of his sentence suspended. And on that original three years
2 that he spent incarcerated, he was, in fact, given credit
3 for the 263 days that he spent in prison prior to
4 sentencing. Therefore, we contend that he would receive
5 double credit for time served if he were given additional
6 credit for time served after the revocation of his
7 probation.

8 THE COURT: All right. I think I understand.

9 I want to hear the testimony from the Applicant. So
10 I'm going to deny the motion to --

11 Mr. Neubauer, did you style the motion as a Motion to 12 Dismiss or a Motion for Summary Judgment or does it matter?

13 MR. NEUBAUER: It does not particularly matter, Your 14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'm going to deny the Motion
16 to Dismiss.

17 Mr. Griffith, you may call your first witness.

18 MR. GRIFFITH: Thank you, Your Honor. If it pleases
19 the Court, I'm going to call Mr. Quentin Hardy, please.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, remember that you are under oath
21 and answer any questions that Mr. Griffith may have for you.

22 THE APPLICANT: Yes, sir.

23 DIRECT EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. GRIFFITH:

25 Q Mr. Hardy, according to your complaint, you're entitled

1 to a total of 526 days of which you claim that you have not
2 been given credit for all that. How much do you think
3 you've been given credit for?

4 A I've only been given credit for 20 days.

5 Q And of that 526 days, you spent two separate times
6 incarcerated before you were sentenced. One was for 261
7 days and the other one was for, like, 265 days; is that
8 correct?

9 A Correct.

10 Q But they've only given you credit for 20 days, is that 11 your contention?

12 A Correct.

13 Q Okay. And so why don't you tell the Court in your 14 words -- of course, you know, the statute 24-13-40 does
15 indicate that you should be given credit for time served
16 prior to sentencing even if it -- it doesn't make a
17 distinction for split sentencing. So why don't you in your
18 own words let the Court know what's wrong with the way
19 they've calculated your time.

20 A Okay. Well, on August the 14th, I was sentenced to 21 four years of my original sentence, which was ten years
22 suspended to three years and three years probation. Was
23 given additional credit for terminate probation on this date
24 and the Defendant is to be given credit for accrued time
25 since 7/25/2019, the Judge marked that and had served 42

1 months of prior revocation and initial SCDC time. And on
2 August the 29th of 2019, I went to SCDC and spoke with
3 Sandra Richardson, Stacy Richardson, head of classification
4 and she's the one who informed me that, in fact, I wouldn't
5 receive credit for the 42 months, but I would receive credit
6 for the pretrial detention time, which I did in those 42
7 months, which came to 217 days, 20 days and 24 days, which
8 came to a total of 265 days.

9 And, also, she told me don't worry yet because I
10 haven't been audited yet and the two new charges that I had
11 went concurrent with my probation violation, the time hadn't
12 come in yet. When the time finally did come in on that, it
13 was 261 days. And so then I thought that my time would all
14 add up at the same time. It did not. So when I asked her
15 what was my release date, she told me it was 12/21/21 --
16 well, 12 (inaudible) 2021. And that being a total from 17 August to December of 12/21, that would have gave me 28
18 months -- well, 29 months with no credit.

19 So my thing is how could y'all have awarded me the 20 credit that y'all saying that y'all give me, which I have 21 the paperwork saying that y'all gave me credit, but what
22 y'all doing is y'all are applying the credit into a time
23 that don't have -- because y'all are saying the original
24 sentence still -- someone still owes for the time of the 25 original sentence. So the six and a half years that I have

1 left on my sentence, y'all are putting all the credit that I
2 have towards that, towards the six and a half years and not
3 actually giving me the 526 days credited towards the four
4 years I'm actively serving.

5 Q Mr. Hardy, so your contention is that you didn't get
6 credit for anything but 20 days. Who told you that you only
7 got credit for 20 days?

8 A I have the paperwork -- I have the classification here
9 and I have the paperwork from the classification stating 10 that that's -- see, it actually states on here that they're 11 giving me 265 days and they're giving me 20 days of credit.
12 It's right here, it says they're giving me 20 days jail
13 credit and 265 days jail credit, which is -- they're giving
14 it to me, but they're not applying it towards the four years
15 that I'm actively serving. They're applying it towards the 16 six and a half years. That's where all my time is going, to 17 a sentence I don't have.

18 If you take the 42 months and the eight months for the 19 261 days, that's 50 months, and apply it to the 78 months,
20 which they told me I have, and if you take 50 from 78, it
21 gives you 28 months. That's how they got the whole total of 22 the months that I have without applying any credit towards
23 my four years, but applying it all towards the six and a
24 half years. They're not giving me any credit directly
25 towards my four years, but 20 days.

1 Q So Mr. Hardy, based on your calculations and the way
2 you're looking at it, you are currently being illegally held
3 because your time has expired when you count in all the time
4 that you should have been given credit for; isn't that
5 correct?

6 A Yes, sir, it is.

7 Q Okay. And so, generally speaking, as Mr. Neubauer
8 mentioned, PCR issues is not a place for when you're talking
9 about giving credit for time served, except for the fact
10 that you're currently being held illegally because you're 11 being held past the time you normally would have had to 12 spend had you been given credit?

13 A Correct.

14 Q So that's your main issue, isn't it?

15 A Yes, sir, it is.

16 Q Okay. And so, when you were first -- when you first
17 were arrested, how many days did you spend in jail the first
18 time?

19 A You talking in 2009, when I first was arrested in 2009?
20 On the first one, it was 265 days.

21 Q 265 days?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Then when you were arrested subsequently on the 24 probation violation, how many days were you in the jail
25 before you were sentenced on that one?

1 A 261.

2 Q Okay. And so, when your sentence was -- your probation
3 was revoked, did they tell you that you'd be serving those
4 sentences concurrently with two different sentences?

5 A Yes, that's correct. That's the paperwork that I have 6 right here says probation revocation -- the two charges that
7 I have will run concurrent with my probation revocation on 8 8/14/19.

9 Q Now, the first time you were incarcerated at SCDC, did
10 they give you credit then for that 265 days that you had 11 already been in the jail on the first time?

12 A To my knowledge, I believe.

13 Q Okay. So you got credit there?

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q And so, now you're claiming that on this current
16 incarceration, you did not get credit for the 261 days that 17 you were incarcerated before sentencing on this current
18 charge, set of charges; is that correct?

19 A Correct.

20 Q Okay.

21 MR. GRIFFITH: I have no further questions. Please
22 answer any questions that Mr. Neubauer or the Court may 23 have.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Griffith, before you tender the 25 witness, we need to do some housekeeping matters. We

1 received the two separate packets of information with regard
2 to Mr. Hardy's sentence sheets, the form 9's, and then
3 multiple entries from the jail. So I have Plaintiff's --
4 or, excuse me -- well, it's marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit
5 No. 1, which was the 22-page document we received initially.
6 And then we also received another set of information, which
7 could be cumulative. But I've got two items we've marked as 8 Plaintiff's No. 1 and Plaintiff's No. 2. And I think those
9 were to be admitted without objection if I'm correct?

10 MR. GRIFFITH: Yes, Your Honor. In fact, I had
11 provided Mr. Neubauer with that second set of documents,
12 more than likely, but I'm sure he -- he said he was going to
13 provide them to the Court and without objection, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I just wanted to make sure before we
15 went any further that we had that housekeeping matter
16 straightened out.

17 So Plaintiff's 1 and 2 are admitted.

18 Mr. Neubauer, do you have any objection to the 19 admission of those packets of documents?

20 MR. NEUBAUER: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.

22 (WHEREUPON, Plaintiff's Exhibit Nos. 1 and 2 admitted
23 into evidence.)

24 THE COURT: Mr. Hardy, answer any questions that Mr.
25 Neubauer may have for you.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. NEUBAUER:

Q Hello, Mr. Hardy.

A Hello.

Q Just a few brief questions to try and clarify this. So do you remember at your plea hearing, Judge Curtis issuing the sentence of one year for marijuana possession second offense and two years for heroin possession first offense and you were told that that will be concurrent with your probation revocation?

A Correct.

Q Do you recall her saying that I will give you credit on both of those cases for any time that you've served?

A The question was never asked.

Q I apologize, it was not a question, it was an additional statement after she dictated the sentence. Do you recall that statement?

A Yeah, that I would get credit for it, yeah.

Q Yes. Now, if you look at -- this is the packet of information you had provided to Mr. Griffith, what will be Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 2, Page 24 of 45. The numbering is slightly off in the official packet because the pages that are numbered only start with Page 7. The offense on this particular charge was narcotics possession. And you see for the narcotics possession, the jail credit is indicated as

1 265 days, correct?

2 THE COURT: Mr. Neubauer, is that what we had listed as
3 Plaintiff's No. 2 -- in the packet as Plaintiff's No. 2?

4 MR. NEUBAUER: Yes, sir, that will be Plaintiff's No. 2
5 and should be the 20th page in the packet, but it is labeled
6 on the bottom of the page, Page 24 of 45.

7 THE COURT: All right. I'm with you, Mr. Neubauer.

8 MR. NEUBAUER: Now, in addition, if you look at Page 22
9 of 45, the offense for this commitment application is 10 marijuana possession. And again, we see a jail credit of 11 265 days. That's page 22 of 45.

12 THE COURT: Yes, sir, I see that.

13 MR. NEUBAUER: The State contends that this indicates
14 that the Applicant had received credit for each of his drug
15 sentences for the amount of time that he spent incarcerated
16 prior to sentencing. This will be further reflected on Page
17 26 of 45. If you look specifically at the sentence -- or 18 commitment application, you will see heroin possession with 19 a sentence start date of November 20th, 2018 -- I apologize,
20 I believe I may have addressed the wrong one. I apologize,
21 I misspoke on that particular page.

22 THE COURT: That's fine.

23 MR. NEUBAUER: Let me draw the Court's attention to 24 Page 36 of 45. It indicates at the bottom of that that
25 Applicant was arrested on July 25th, 2019 for a probation

1 violation.

2 It is further reflected on the form 9 on Page 20 of 45
3 that with the termination of his probation and Mr. Hardy
4 having four years of his suspended sentence revoked that he
5 was to be given credit for pre-revocation hearing detention
6 time July 25th, 2019. That was expressly stated on the form
7 9.

8 Therefore, additionally, if we examine Page 18, which 9 shows the sentence start date for -- or the SCDC
10 jurisdiction date for Mr. Hardy was 7/25/2019. It indicates 11 that his sentence start date for this, this would be the 12 sentence where his probation was revoked. He was given a
13 jail credit of 20 days. SCDC, at this point, per our 14 conversations contends that this was the appropriate amount
15 of time from when they received Mr. Hardy to how they 16 interpreted the form 9 when he was to receive credit for 17 that time. It appears through all commitment inquiries that 18 he has received credit for each individual charge for the 19 time that he spent incarcerated pursuant to those charges.
20 And we still would contend that at this point, Mr. Hardy is 21 not eligible for immediate release.

22 THE COURT: So Mr. Neubauer, I guess to summarize the 23 State's position, it would be the State's position that the 24 charges which predated 2018 that he received a split
25 sentence for, he received credit for the pretrial detention

1 when his release was calculated the first time?

2 MR. NEUBAUER: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I just want to make sure that I've
4 got each respective argument clear in my mind before we go
5 any further.

6 Do you have any more questions for Mr. Hardy?

7 MR. NEUBAUER: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Griffith, do you have any redirect for 9 Mr. Hardy?

10 MR. GRIFFITH: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Hardy.

12 Mr. Griffith, do you have any other witnesses?

13 MR. GRIFFITH: No further witnesses, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Neubauer?

15 MR. NEUBAUER: The State would briefly call Phillip
16 Little.

17 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Little, if you would join
18 us, please. Mr. Little, if you would raise your right hand
19 for me.

20 PHILLIP LITTLE, after being duly
21 sworn, testified as follows:

22 THE COURT: Answer any questions Mr. Neubauer has for
23 you.

24 DIRECT EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. NEUBAUER:

1 Q Briefly, you represented Mr. Hardy at his plea hearing
2 in 2019; is that correct?

3 A That is correct.

4 Q And to your recollection, he was awarded credit for
5 time served by Judge Curtis, correct?

6 A That is my recollection. I don't remember the specific
7 amount of time credited to him at that hearing, but it's my
8 understanding he was credited some time.

9 Q And do you recall Judge Curtis making any distinction
10 that he would receive credit for the time he spent
11 incarcerated on his current drug charge towards his 12 probation revocation?

13 A I do not remember.

14 MR. NEUBAUER: Thank you. At this point, I don't have 15 any more questions.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Griffith, any redirect -- or any cross,
17 I'm sorry? I'm getting ahead of myself.

18 MR. GRIFFITH: I got you. No questions, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Neubauer, any other witnesses?

20 MR. NEUBAUER: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Folks, I'm going to take this
22 matter under advisement. I will have a decision in the form
23 of a memo and that will be provided to each side no later
24 than next Friday, which is March 19th. I will advise the 25 prevailing party to prepare a proposed order and share it

1 with the other side and then forward it to the Court for my
2 signature.

3 If there's nothing else with regard to this matter, we
4 are adjourned for today.

5 MR. GRIFFITH: Thank you.

6 MR. NEUBAUER: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Thank y'all very much.

MR. ANIRAL

What I'm wanting Sir is just what I feel is owed to me by law that it's nothing more or nothing less 526 day to be exact and under 24-1340 and pages 36-44 will point out along with pages 22-24 will show a combined number of that at all of that is pre-trial detention time that I have on my current charges that I'm in here for and it has not yet been applied to the 4 years that I am serving now when the fact it should be, and also the case ~~as~~ that I sent you which was "Hayes vs State" he went through the same thing but ~~do~~ to the fact that the same mistake was made again and now I'm going through it now so please can we fix this Sir I want to write something down that was in his case that makes a plain statement to me.

We find the Court erred as a matter of law when it determined a probationer who receives a split sentence should not receive credit for time served prior to trial against a reinstated sentence because the pre-trial detention was already awarded to satisfy the time served portion of the split sentence this finding contradicts 24-13-40 which states the following when b) the commencement of the service of the sentence follows the revocation of probation the computation of the time served shall be reckoned from the date of the commencement of the service of the sentence in every case full credit shall be given for time served prior to trial and sentencing 24-13-40 the statute does not make a distinction for split sentences; thus under the plain language of the statute we find the pre-trial detention time should apply against a probation revocation whenever a probationer receives a split sentence.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY

DEPUTY CLERK OF COURT
SUMTER COUNTY
SOUTH CAROLINA

This matter comes before the Court by way of an application for post-conviction relief filed on February 6, 2019, by Quentin D. Hardy (Applicant). The State (Respondent) filed a Return on March 2, 2020, requesting an evidentiary hearing. An evidentiary hearing into the matter was convened on March 8, 2021, remotely via the WebEx virtual courtroom. Applicant was present at the hearing and represented by Timothy Griffith, Esquire. Assistant Attorney General Michael Neubauer of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office appeared on behalf of Respondent. At the hearing, Applicant testified on his own behalf and his plea counsel also testified. After a review of the record and all evidence presented, this Court finds Applicant has failed to meet his requisite burden of proof of establishing any constitutional or statutory deprivations or violations required for a grant of post-conviction relief. Accordingly, this Court denies and dismisses this application with prejudice.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Applicant is presently confined in the South Carolina Department of Corrections stemming from his guilty pleas to two separate sets of charges. On April 28, 2013, Applicant broke into, and entered a residence belonging to Brandon Klavon, at night, without consent, and with the intent to commit a crime there in. Applicant was indicted by the Sumter County Grand Jury for second-degree burglary (2014-GS-43-0188). Applicant appeared before the Honorable R. Ferrell Cothran, Jr., and plead guilty to this charge as indicted. Applicant was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, suspended upon the service of three years' imprisonment and three years' probation.

While on probation, Applicant was subsequently indicted for possession of cocaine, possession of heroin, and possession of marijuana, second offense (2019-GS-43-0011). As a result of these charges, Applicant was in violation of the terms of his probation and a citation was issued. In addition, Applicant violated multiple conditions of his probation, including failure to report, failure to pay supervision fees, failure to pay court surcharges, failure to comply with the clerk of court, and on multiple incidents of law enforcement contact, which include giving false information to law enforcement on May 13, 2019, and driving under a suspended license on May 24, 2019. On August 9, 2019, Applicant appeared before the Honorable Kristi F. Curtis, circuit court judge, to enter a guilty plea to the drug offenses and for a probation revocation hearing. The State was represented by Assistant Solicitor Tyler Brown of the Third Circuit Solicitor's Office and Applicant was represented by Assistant Public Defender Phillip D. Little, Jr., of the Third Circuit Public Defender's Office. Applicant pled guilty to possession of heroin and possession of marijuana (second offense) Judge Curtis sentenced Applicant to two years of imprisonment for possession of heroin and one year of imprisonment for possession of marijuana. Judge Curtis also determined Applicant was in violation of the terms and conditions of his probation and revoked four years of Applicant's probation. Applicant did not pursue a direct appeal.

ALLEGATIONS RAISED

In Applicant's post-conviction relief application, Applicant alleges he is being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons:

1. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel
2. Illegal Sentence- Sentence Exceeded Maximum Sentences Allowed by Statute

As requested relief, Applicant states he is seeking "credit for time served to be applied properly by South Carolina Department of Corrections."

On February 25, 2021, Applicant, through his counsel, filed an amended application alleging:

1. He is being held beyond his sentence due to an error by SCDC in not giving him credit for his time served as ordered by the sentencing Judge. Specifically, he asserts "Mr. Hardy served, according to Mr. Hardy, 265 days pre-sentencing on his charge for Burglary and trafficking. Additionally, Mr. Hardy claims he also served 261 days on a drug charge. According to Mr. Hardy, he was only given 20 days credit in total."

At the evidentiary hearing, Applicant stated he was going forward on the allegation set forth in his amended application.

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This Court viewed the testimony presented at the evidentiary hearing, observed the witnesses presented at the hearing, passed upon their credibility, and weighed the testimony accordingly. Further, this Court has reviewed the Clerk of Court records regarding the subject convictions, the trial transcript, the application for post-conviction relief, the amended application for post-conviction relief, and the legal arguments made by the attorneys. Set forth below are the relevant findings of fact and conclusion of law as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-80 (2003).

1. Denial of State's Motion to Dismiss

At the beginning of Applicant's evidentiary hearing, the State moved to dismiss Applicant's post-conviction relief application on the grounds that Applicant was raising a claim which was not proper under the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act, and Applicant was not entitled to immediate release.

In a post-conviction relief action, the applicant bears the burden of proving the allegations in his or her application. Butler v. State, 334 S.E.2d 813 (1985). Under the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act, an applicant may commence a post-conviction relief action on the following grounds:

1. United States or the Constitution or laws of this State;
2. That the court was without jurisdiction to impose sentence;
3. That the sentence exceeds the maximum authorized by law;
4. That there exists evidence of material facts, not previously presented and heard, that requires vacation of the conviction or sentence in the interest of justice;
5. That his sentence has expired, his probation, parole or conditional release [was] unlawfully revoked, or he is otherwise unlawfully held in custody or other restraint; or
6. That the conviction or sentence is otherwise subject to collateral attack upon any ground of alleged error heretofore available under any common law, statutory or other writ, motion, petition, proceeding or remedy
- 7.

S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-20(A).

However, any claims that the South Carolina Department of Corrections ("SCDC") is improperly denying sentencing credits is not a proper claim for post-conviction relief. The court in Al-Shabazz, outlined the proper procedure for an inmate challenging a final decision of the SCDC.

Today we answer that question affirmatively and hold that an inmate may seek review of Department's final decision in an administrative matter under the APA¹. Placing review of these cases within the ambit of the APA will ensure that an inmate receives due process, which consists of notice, a hearing, and judicial review. It also will provide an orderly and consistent framework for resolving such matters.

Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 369, 527 S.E.2d 742, 750 (2000).

Disciplinary charges are brought against an inmate by serving the inmate with notice of the disciplinary charges at least twenty four hours prior to the hearing, "When an inmate is found guilty, the officer must prepare a written report containing, among other things, the evidence presented and considered, the reasons for a determination of guilt... The warden reviews the disciplinary hearing officer's decision, and may approve, modify or reverse it." Id. 338 S.C. at 372-73, 527 S.E.2d at 752.

After receiving a decision, an inmate may appeal the decision with SCDC. "An inmate appeals the decision by initiating a grievance... The matter is reviewed by the institutional inmate grievance coordinator, who recommends a course of action to the prison warden after interviewing affected employees and inmates. The warden must respond to the inmate in writing within a specified period. The inmate may appeal the warden's decision to the appropriate deputy director, inspector general, or general counsel of Department. That person's response is Department's final decision in the matter." Id. 338 S.C. at 373, 527 S.E.2d at 752.

Though a decision may be considered SCDC's final decision, an inmate may still pursue further legal challenges to the Department's decision. "The ALJ² sits in an appellate capacity to review Department's decisions." Id. 338 S.C. at 377, 527 S.E.2d at 754. "The ALJ 'shall render a decision in a written order which shall be served on all parties and filed with the clerk of the [ALJ] Division.'" Id. 338 S.C. at 377, 527 S.E.2d at 754 (citing Rule 40, ALJDRP).

Once a decision has been rendered by the ALJ, an inmate may further challenge the decision of SCDC, and the ALJ, through the circuit court system. "To obtain judicial review of the ALJ's final decision, 'a petition by an aggrieved party must be filed with the Circuit Court and served on the opposing party not more than thirty days after the party receives the final decision and order of the administrative law judge. Appeal in these matters is by right.'" Id. 338 S.C. at 378, 527 S.E.2d at 755 (Citing Wolff v. McDonnell, 418 U.S. at 555-56, accord S.C. Const. art. 1, §22; Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977)).

² Administrative Law Judge Division.

This process was further confirmed by the Court in Carpenter v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, stating:

The Al-Shabazz court also found an application for PCR was not the appropriate method for raising sentencing credits issues. Rather, inmates must raise those issues first through SCDC's internal grievance process and then, if the decision involves the removal of earned sentencing credits, through an appeal to the ALC. However, the Al-Shabazz court found there was an exception to this statutorily-mandated procedure: when the sentencing credit issue is alleged to have caused an inmate to remain imprisoned past the expiration of his lawful sentence, the claim is appropriately raised in a PCR application under § 17-27-20(A)(5).

Carpenter v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 431 S.C. 512, 522, 848 S.E.2d 346, 351 (Ct. App. 2020) (internal citations omitted).

The State argued Applicant's allegation regarding credit for time served is not a proper allegation for post-conviction relief. Applicant's counsel argued Applicant would be entitled to immediate release and Applicant should be allowed to present his allegations to the Court. The Court denied the State's motion to dismiss, and allowed Applicant to proceed with his evidentiary hearing.

2. Illegal Sentence

- a. Applicant is being held beyond his sentence due to an error by SCDC in not giving him credit for his time served as ordered by the sentencing Judge.

Applicant alleges he did not receive credit for 526 days of time served for which he was entitled. Applicant further alleges, he only received credit for twenty days of time served. The records and evidence before this Court clearly refute this claim.

The requirement that a prisoner receive credit for time served is mandatory. Hayes v. State, 413 S.C. 553, 559, 777 S.E.2d 6, 10 (2015) (citing State v. Boggs, 388 S.C. 314, 316, 696 S.E.2d 597, 598 (Ct. App. 2010)). "[W]hen ... (b) the commencement of the service of the sentence follows the revocation of probation... the computation of the time served shall be reckoned from the date of the commencement of the service of the sentence. In every case ...full credit...shall be given for time served prior to trial and sentencing." S.C. Code Ann. § 24-13-40.

Applicant testified he served two different periods of time in jail. Applicant testified he was initially incarcerated for 261 days prior to his sentencing for second degree burglary. Additionally, Applicant testified he was incarcerated for 265 days after he was arrested for possession of cocaine, possession of heroin, and possession of marijuana. Applicant testified he has only received credit for time served for twenty days. Applicant testified he has paperwork showing the amount of time he spent in jail for each charge. Applicant testified despite his paperwork showing the amount of time he spent in jail, the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC) has only given Applicant credit for twenty days of time served for his probation violation.

In reply, Respondent introduced into evidence, without objection, two exhibits which included Applicant's SCDC records, Applicant's sentencing sheets, Applicant's probation orders, and Applicant's jail time report for SCDC transfer. Applicant testified he recalled his plea judge informing Applicant that he will receive credit for time served on each of his drug offenses. Applicant testified he recognized he received 265 days credit for time served on both of his narcotics possession charges. Applicant testified he recognized he received 20 days credit for time served for his probation revocation. Applicant additionally testified he received 261 days credit for time served on his original three year sentence for armed robbery. Applicant testified he felt his credit for time served was not properly calculated, and he was entitled to immediate release due to this miscalculation.

Applicant's plea and probation revocation counsel Little testified he represented Applicant at the time of his plea hearing. Little testified Applicant was awarded credit for time served by Judge Curtis, though Little did not remember the specific amount of credit Applicant was given. Little testified he does not remember if Judge Curtis made any distinction in credit for time served between Applicant's probation revocation and Applicant's current drug charges.

This Court finds the South Carolina Department of Corrections properly calculated Applicant's credit for time served. Applicant was given credit for the 261 days Applicant spent in jail before sentencing when he was originally incarcerated in February 2014. Applicant was given credit for 265 days' time served on his possession of heroin charge. Applicant was given credit for 265 days' time served on his possession of marijuana charge. Applicant was additionally given credit for twenty days' time served on his probation revocation. This Court finds Applicant has failed to meet his burden to show the South Carolina Department of Corrections improperly calculated his time served credit. Further, Applicant has failed to show he is being held in custody unlawfully. As such, based on the standard set forth above, this Court finds Applicant has failed to meet his requisite burden of establishing he is being held beyond his sentence, or that his sentence has exceeded the maximum authorized by law and this allegation is denied and dismissed with prejudice.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds and concludes Applicant has not established any constitutional violations or deprivations that would require this Court to grant his application. Therefore, this application for post-conviction relief must be denied and dismissed with prejudice.

The Court notes Applicant must file and serve a notice of appeal within thirty days from post-conviction relief counsel's receipt of written notice of entry of judgment to secure the appropriate appellate review. See Rule 203, SCACR. Pursuant to Austin v. State, 305 S.C. 453, 409 S.E.2d 395 (1991), Applicant has a right to appellate counsel's assistance in seeking review of the denial of post-conviction relief. Rule 71.1(g), SCRCP, provides that if Applicant wishes to seek appellate review, post-conviction relief counsel must serve and file a notice of appeal on Applicant's behalf. Applicant is directed to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 243 for appropriate procedures for appeal.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The application for post-conviction relief is denied and dismissed with prejudice; and
2. Applicant is to remain in the custody of the Respondent.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 27th day of April, 2021.
